

Tennis And Golf Teams Finish Winning Seasons

By Ted Fox

The St. Andrews golf and tennis teams have completed their respective seasons with both teams boasting winning records.

Cindermen Boast Excellent Record

The St. Andrews track team finished its first year of participation with an impressive record of six wins and four losses. This will be the record to strive for next year when almost the same team will be fielded.

Hopes are high that the freshmen entering this fall can fill the gaps in the field events and push S.A. to an even better record during 64-65.

DIAC Reelects Hackney Head

The annual meeting of the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was held Sunday on the St. Andrews campus. A vote of confidence was given St. Andrews coach Rufus Hackney as he was re-elected President of the conference.

Tournament sites for the 1964-65 season were selected.

St. Andrews will host the cross country meet Nov. 14 and the tennis championships on April 30-May 1, 1965.

The site of the basketball tournament was moved from Charleston to N.C. Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount. A change in location of the basketball tourney had been anticipated after the treatment the teams received in Charleston this past year. The date was set for Feb. 18-20, 1965.

Other selections include: Bowling tournament — Charlotte, March 7, 1965; track meet—Lynchburg April 24, 1965; and the golf tournament which will be held at either Charleston or St. Andrews.

TENNIS TEAM SECOND

The tennis team terminated its year with an outstanding 12-4 record and with a second place berth in the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. In the D.I.A.C. tournament in Rocky Mount, April 30-May 2, the Knight netmen also placed second behind Charleston College, the winner of the regular season play. Carolina Wesleyan finished third in the tournament followed by Charlotte College and Methodist College of Fayetteville, respectively. Lynchburg College did not enter a team in the tournament. In the three-day event Javan Reid of St. Andrews captured the sixth man singles by playing almost flawless tennis. Larry Varner, third man on the team, will be the only member of the squad that will be lost by graduation. Coach Rufus Hackney predicts that next year's team, with the five experienced lettermen returning, will be as strong, if not stronger, than this year's squad.

GOLF TEAM FIRST

The St. Andrews golf team fared even better than the tennis team, finishing first in the D.I.A.C. Tournament and also in regular season play. In the tournament Bill McInnis of St. Andrews was medalist winner, finishing ahead of some 230 golfers. Xan Law was runner-up for medalist honors, and Bill Goodale was second runner-up. St. Andrews competed with 26 other small colleges in the area, May 10-12, in the district N.A.I.A. golf tournament. In this match the Knights finished in eighth place. Appalachian State Teachers College finished first in this tournament. In regular season play the Knights posted a commendable 9-3 record.

Early dwellers in the Holy Land understood irrigation, say archeologists, and in 2000 B.C. farm villages thrived in the now-barren Negev.

The staff members for the LAMP AND SHIELD and the LANCE have been chosen for next year. The new editor of the LAMP AND SHIELD is Trudy Dawkins who will be assisted by Caroline Clower. Bob Hatcher is charged with attending to business matters. They will begin work immediately on the publication of the LAMP AND SHIELD for 1965. (see photo)

Lonnie Mann will head up the LANCE staff for 1965 as editor-in-chief while Doodle Payne will function as managing editor. The LANCE staff is hopeful that there will be more extensive student participation next year. It is our sentiment that a student publication can be only as helpful as the students are willing to make it. The staff believes that this publication can be utilized to the advantage of the school if it is a successful newspaper. Since you are a part of the college it can, then, be used to your advantage also.

The staff invites you to join us in being a part of this publication. All contributions and comments will be appreciated.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Sir:

The need for St. Andrews to become associated with an effective local and regional student government association should be of prime importance to the present cabinet. The ability of NSSGA to serve the needs of St. Andrews has been realized by all interested students on campus, and it should be pointed out that most of the remaining colleges now in NSSGA also are facing up to the fact that this organization cannot provide their schools with the needed machinery that is required for such an organization to be effective. The fact is that not only St. Andrews but all of the colleges now in NSSGA are in need for an effective local organization.

The possibility of St. Andrews acquiring membership in the regional organization SUSGA offers this college an opportunity not only of taking part in an organization that covers many states but also the opportunity to establish an effective local organization in North Carolina within the framework of SUSGA. The Senate has urged the president of our Student Government Association to call a meeting of all the presidents of the schools now in NSSGA to discuss the need for some type of effective local Student Government Association. The possibility of not only St. Andrews gaining membership into SUSGA but also other North Carolina schools would give such a meeting a strong point to work from. It would be to St. Andrews credit if we would take the lead in trying to establish a working local Student Government Association in North Carolina.

Respectively yours,
Gill Rock
