Mecklenburg North Wins Intramural Football Playoff

Mecklenburg North toppled Mecklenburg South in the playoff for the Men's Intramural Championship by a score of 16-0. Both teams finished the season with an 8-2 record. Riding on a seven game winning streak, Mecklenburg North's spirits were "up" for the deciding game.

Bill Gasque blocked an attempted Mecklenburg South punt in the end zone and put Mecklenburg South ahead 2-0. The defense sparked for all of the game, the highlight being when Bruce Tighe intercepted a Mecklenburg South pass and then tossed a pass to Gasque for the touchdown. In the final scoring play of the game, quarterback Bob Brenshaw threw to Tighe who again heaved another touchdown pass, this time E. D. Turnwas on the receiving end.

Larry Ludka, one of Mecklenburg South's outstanding players, was out of action due to a hand injury sustained in a previous game. Barry Snyder, president of the Men's Intramural Sports, says of this year's football season, "This year we have seen more teams with better records, rather than just one or two teams competing for the title. This has resulted in better participation and more spirit on the part of all players."

Kings Mountain proved itself this year by staying right in the heart of the battle until dropping its final game, 26-0 to Meck. South.

Watch for the All-Star game against the University of North Carolina Dorm champs towards the end of November. An All-Star team has been chosen, they are:

- Buddy Elmore - Winston Salem East
- Scott McCrea - Winston Salem West
- Badger Johnson - Orange
- Bob Brewbaker - Kings Mountain

- Jack Callahan - Mecklenburg South
- Kell Gay - Mecklenburg South
- Athos Rostan - Mecklenburg South
- Rick Legrand - Mecklenburg South
- Larry Ludka - Mecklenburg South

and the championship team-- Mecklenburg North

Coy and Sandlin Retain Cup Title

The second annual Dean's Cup Races were held for the men and women students of St. Andrews this past Saturday, October 30.

Successfully defending their championship title for Kings Mountain dorm were sophomores Bob Coy and Woody Sandlin. The oarsmen completed the course in a record time of 7:31:6, bettering the second place team of "Motorcycle" Quinn and "Harlem" Colby of Kings Mountain by 6 seconds.

Wilmington dorm repeated its performance again this year by capturing the women's boat race title. Behind the cars were Bonnie Wolf and Linda Schutt, freshmen. Running a close second were Beverly Brewer and Mary Kesler representing Albemarle dorm.

The coed race, like the women's, covering a shorter distance.

Knights Upset ECC in Finale

COY PASSES BALL IN VICTORY OVER ECC

The St. Andrews soccer team closed the season last Tuesday with a 5-1 upset victory over East Carolina College.

The Knights started the game with a corner kick from Yank Albers to Howie Flierl who scored the first St. Andrew goal. E.C.C. scored on a penalty kick in the second period.

A key defensive play occurred in the first half as goalie Joe Overton was drawn deep into the penalty box. A quick pass left the goal open and E.C.C. attempted to score on a slow rolling shot. Fullback Jeep Mullins managed to get a toe on the ball to save a sure goal. The first half ended in a 1 - 1 deadlock.

The S.A. booters outshot the E.C.C. team 19 to 10 in the first half, but were unable to connect for a score.

The second proved what was evident in the first. Albers, early in the third period, broke the tie with a penalty shot, followed by Bob Chaiken with a goal after a scramble at the E. C. C. goal. Albers again led the scoring in the final period with a head shot from Bob Welch. Wells Bill capped off the season with the Knights final goal on an assist from Albers.

Goalie Overton led the defense with 17 saves. Strong support came from his three fullbacks, Jack Castle, George Pistolas, and Mullinix.

This was the Knights final game of the season, leaving them with a 4-8 record.
