Board of Trustees Hold Annual Fall Meeting

 reviews all proposed budgets, all investments, loans and audit reports and recommends fiscal policy.

These committees then presented to the entire Board reports of a generally informative nature this morning at ten. The major item requiring some type of action was the Code of Responsibility, presented by a student-faculty committee as a proposal.

In general, the Board is simply a means of gaining some type of perspective on the overall operations. It maintains the financial end of the college while acting only upon issues presented to it through one of its committees.

There are thirty-six members of the Board elected by the Synod of North Carolina for a term of three years. The current members of the Board are: Thomas M. Belk, Chairman; Hector MacLean, Vice Chairman; Halbert M. Jones, Vice Chairman; Irwin Belk, Vice Chairman; Charles F. Meyers, Jr., Vice Chairman;

Mid-term's Upon Us — PANIC!

Blessings . . . Pope

“Greetings from the Dean of the College. Your son/daughter is the proud recipient of a D/F in his/her _____ for the mid-term.”

PANIC!!

“He/She is flunking out. We’re wasting a fortune on his/her education. What to do?!”

MORE PANIC!!

“Hello Mom/Dad - You got a what from where? Let me explain. . . Oh, you won’t!”

MORE PANIC!!

That about sums it up from all sides of the issue. Parents immediately panic when they receive a mid-term grade report from the Dean.

Often the grade is based on only one or two grades and does not give a fair appraisal of the student's work. The question is “Is it necessary to send these grades home?”

Many times the parents accept the report as the final answer. They fail to realize at times that their son or daughter has only a very few grades in the given course. It takes time to adjust—and not just in the freshman year.

Once parents receive the report the pressure is on and many times the students just give up.

Wouldn't it be better if the students were the only ones to receive the grades? We are expected to be mature and therefore expected to tell our parents how we are doing.

Giving us this added responsibility would save a lot of undue panic at this time of year. Amen.

Student Life Committee Approves New Hours

The Student Life Committee approved a resolution made by Dean Overholser at its meeting on Friday, October 11.

The proposal read as follows: “That the Student Life Committee approves and recommends to Dr. Hart the proposal presented by Granville Hall with the understanding that Dr. Hart and representatives of Granville Hall work out the informing of parents and any other necessary implementations growing out of this request.”

The recommendation has been sent to Dr. Hart and is awaiting his approval.

Also approved were Orange

Hall's proposed hours and extra-curricular courses, sailing, karate, photography, bridge, and auto mechanics.
