Jennings Great In Nets; Freshmen Give Good Performances

The St. Andrews booters totally dominated their match against Greensboro College. It was their first Dixie Conference contest of 1976, and their first win. Their record stands at 1-1 overall, and 1-0 in the conference.

Sheikh Jagne, a junior, utilized his All-Conference skills coupled with fancy footwork, to open up the barrage of 1st half scoring. His "hat trick" (3 goals) were set up by well placed assists from freshman Rick Pumphrey of Sumter, S. C.; Craig Eliassen of Camden, Sel., and Grahm Disque of Media, Pa. Sheikh's efforts won him the nomination of Dixie "Player of the Week," a feat he won last year. To round out the 1st half's score Jagne broke free again with only a minute remaining to score his fourth goal. A perfect assist from co-captain John Barron aided Sheikh with his final goal. At the 44:54 minute mark freshman winger Gary Baggeley unleashed a Jagne assist to blow the Greensboro College keeper away.

Karl Jennings, a Hartsville,

SC native, registered his college shutout of his career. Karl, a junior "net minder," kept the attacking forces dazzled by his superb ball handling and goal work. His quick releases set up many of the SA scores.

Second half play brought on 2 scores from the fighting Knights. One goal came when Mike Herculson of Sumter, S. C., used a cross shot from 30 yards out. His shot struck the upper right corner of the net untouched by the G. C. keeper. With the score 6-0 at this point the SA booters did not let up from their constant offensive pressure. A brilliant assist by Tom Stoecker of Mendham, N. J. to Iwan Tjokrotaroeno of Suriname S. America gave "T.J." his first goal as a varsity player, and settling the final score at 7-0.

But the highlighting of the scorers could not say enough about the rest of the squad. Everyone played tough, looked sharp and worked together for a Knight victory Tuesday afternoon.

Lance Anniversary Celebrations Next Week

THE LANCE will kick off a month long celebration of its fifteenth anniversary next week with the largest single issue ever published.

The anniversary issue will come out September 23, fifteen years to the day after volume one, number one was published in 1961. A retrospective format will present some of the best of THE LANCE's articles over the last decade and a half. Sections politics, the Vietnam war, the arts, humor, and people, to cite a few, will bring the past back to life in what promises to be a memorable publishing event.

Following the anniversary issue by a week will be the taking of The Bigger Picture, a photograph of the entire college community on Detable Terrace Wednesday, Sept. 29 at 11:30 a.m. The photo, a sequel to last year's enormously successful "Big Picture," will be shot by Lance photographers from the roof of DeTable Library, and will be printed in THE LANCE the following week. Glossy prints will also be available for sale. In the event of rain, the event will take place on Wednesday, October 6.

Also in October, THE LANCE is scheduled to begin carrying a magazine supplement, "Collage". Designed for college newspaper audiences, "Collage" is a provocative and perceptive journal that should add a new dimension to THE LANCE's coverage.

Wrapping up the celebrations will be a month long exhibit on the history of American journalism opening in the College Union on Monday October 18. On loan from the Henry Luce Hall of Journalism of the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of History and Technology, the exhibit traces the development of the free press in America.

In a series of deftly handled parliamentary moves, Mecklenburg Senator Steve Newton led the Student Association to revoke, at least temporarily, the $28,000 1976-77 budget it passed last week.

He justified his motion on the grounds that in the confusion of last week's budget session the Senate and Cabinet appropriations had not been passed. Under Robert's Rules of Order, he contended, the entire budget was open to amendment.

In introducing his motion to the Senate, Newton told the body that:

"Cutbacks are intended in the the C.U.B., C.C.C. and B.S.U. for two reasons. One is the question of some accountability to the Student Association. The overriding concern is that the Senate, not having the money to grant all the request of these organizations seeks to maintain an open avenue through which these and other organizations can request funds on a project-by-project basis.

Reasons for the deletion of the Cairn and Chapbooks from the amended budget stem from serious reservations by a number of Senators about both the reasoning behind Student Association funding for these, and about their abilities to support themselves, at least in part, through their own profit. They should not be viewed as a final position, but merely a desire to receive more information and justification prior to the commitment of nearly $2,000.

The final items represent the intent of this budget to, as far as possible, grant every worthwhile club or program "some" funds. Two exceptions made were the Sailing Club, with, we were informed, money remaining from the previous year, and the Rifle and Pistol Association, which has withdrawn its request for funding.

To summarize, it is the intent of this motion to allow both the Senate and Student Association to retain maximum flexibility in dealing with a finite budget.

A lengthy debate ensued, culminating in a referral motion by Granville Senator
