

FACTS CONCERNING THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Normal class of 1928-29 is larger than any of the preceding classes. There are sixty-three students in the class, thirty-seven of whom are new students from different institutions in North Carolina and Virginia. The other twenty-six are graduates from the high school department of this school. We also have a greater number of young men in our class than has been in any normal class before.

The aim of our class is to grow and glow and we as students must help to make it so.—Inez Heckstall, Class Reporter.

CITY AND COUNTY SCHOOLS

On Monday, September 17, 1928, Principal L. S. Burford opened Dunbar High School, the first public standard high school for colored people in the city. One hundred and fifty students enrolled on the first day and since then the numbers have increased to one hundred and sixty-five. Misses Brown, Pannell, Leigh with Mr. J. M. Harris and Mr. J. G. Harris now make up a large and more capable faculty.

The Bank street public school, located in Sawyer Town, was opened with new and better equipment this year. Four modern class rooms, along with running water and electric lights have been added. Mrs. Alice Johnson is principal and is a former graduate of State Normal School. Mrs. A. G. Barnard, S. L. Hardy, Alice Vaughn, Mary Drew, M. C. Overton, Nannie Winslow, Addie Spellman, Misses E. I. Malloy and Helen Reid are members of the faculty. Many of these are foster daughters of our State Normal School.

The schools of the county are keeping up with the city in both teachers and equipment. On September 17, Miss Helen Escribde opened school with twenty-five teachers. All of these are holding State Certificates and three of them are 1928 graduates from State Normal School in Elizabeth City, N. C. They are Misses Odessa Owens, Maude Randall and Louise Smithwick. This county ranks third in length of school term, seven months being the length. Both supervisor and superintendent feel that this year is going to be one of the most progressive yet in education.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The faculty and students are the time-honored custom of S. N. S. by continuing the religious life of the school through the Sunday school, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., and the Wednesday afternoon prayer meeting. The following organizations for the year 1928-29 have been made:
