

As The Camera Man Say

SENIORS IN

Nellie D.

Monday, March 28, started out as any other day, but it did not end in that same manner. More green was seen than at any other time during the year, and there was something in the atmosphere.

The real program for the day got under way at the ten o'clock assembly when President S. D. Williams presented to Alexander Davis the Keys to the College. The oath of duty was administered to the Senior Class, after which Freshmen were pledged as a part of the College.

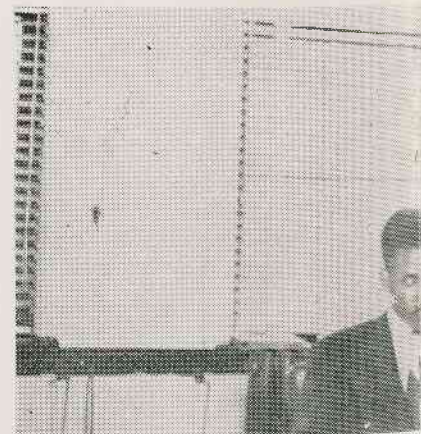

Alexander Davis became President of the College. James Walker was named Dean, and Addie Howard, Secretary to the President. With the aid of other Seniors who were assigned administrative and

Esther Faulk and Mary E. Hill as Registrars

Roberta Moore and Elouise Smith in the Business Office

Alexander Davis, Senior Class President, presenting the keys to the College