

"Krumm's Korner"

By "Doc" Crumm

The cage team of S. T. C. is a very impressive team. Today (Jan. 22), they have won 7 and lost 7. Captain Earnest Davis, Frank Henry, and Randy Tootle are the scoring punch. The other two players in the starting five are Santiago Burrell and Johnny Bynum. A sixth man, who is like a stick of dynamite is Atlas Davis. On the recent Northeastern tour, Elizabeth City won three and lost two. They posted victories over St. Paul 68 - 66, Virginia Seminary 81 - 51, and Maryland State Teachers of Bowie, Maryland 60 - 50, and dropped tilts to Delaware State 68 - 58, and Miner College 57 - 55.

With the season still young, the boys are beginning to find out "Exactly" how each one plays. Did you see the last two home games? If you did you can see what I am talking about. The intra-mural league is going nicely. Incidentally, it is under the supervision and guidance of Coach Williams. . . Mr. Martin and Jemison used to be track stars . . . Look for Dr. Henderson to be playing with the faculty on the hardwood. . . Have you been keeping up with the Junius Kellogg case? Think! What would you have done? The leading scorers in the intra-mural league are Lee Booth with 44, and Carroll Rodgers with 38 points. Each must play his part. Leon "Stump" Thornton is the center of attraction for the basketball team. If life were like Mr. Thornton's jovial ways, this would be a wonderful world . . . Vernon Taylor and Raymond Andrews have left for the armed forces. Here is hoping that this deuce will be just as much of an asset to Uncle Sam as they were to S. T.C. . . Although this is the hardwood season, I want to tell many, and remind others that Rocky Randell and George Clarke made All E.I.A.C. - CONGRATULATIONS . . . The cage Tournament will be held here for the second straight year. See what others think of your hospitality and your gym? . . . Two months and it will be spring. What are you diamond fellers doing? . . . To all young ladies - the gym is yours every evening from 4:10 until 5:30. Only a few are getting its benefit. Why not as many as possible "Use your resources" . . . Dean Thomas has been oiling his cannon all season. Stop by the gym sometime and see your faculty members at play. . . The S.T.C. Faculty might play the W. Va. faculty here at an announced date. . . L. I. U. has a trio of Negro basketball players who are performing well. They are Sherman White, Leroy Smith, and Ray Felix. . . Paul Horvath has stolen the show away from Sam Ranzino over at N. C. State. . . Goose Tatum of the Globetrotters has injured his right hand, and may be out of the line up for the rest of the season. Tatum earns a salary around $25,000 annually. . . Bill White earned $15,000 with the Cleveland Browns and Marion Motley earned $25,000. . . To fight fans - what do you think of present day boxing? . . . "Push" Broddock was injured during the S. T. C. - Miner game in D. C., . . . Oh Yes! Clarence Hanford shot 34 points against State in the same game.

STATE HOT AND COLD ON NORTHEASTERN TOUR

ERNEST DAVIS, FRANK HENRY, AND RANDOLPH TOOTLE LEAD S.T.C. TO THREE VICTORIES OUT OF FIVE CAGE TILTS

Team Returns Home to Edge Norfolk State and Drop One to St. Augustine

Led by the three above men, as the scoring punch, Elizabeth City State Teachers College toured the Northeastern Shores and Western Virginia to cop 3-5 games. Coming thru in desperate games were E. Brown, who scored the winning goal against St. Paul, and captain Ernest Davis, who almost won the Miner game single-handed.

Going down to defeat were St. Paul, Virginia Seminary, and Maryland State Teachers College. S.T.C. lost to Delaware State College and Miner College.

Playing the first game of the year at home, S.T.C., led by Frank Henry with 17 points, eased pass Norfolk State 52-50. With 44 seconds until the final whistle, and the score tied 49-49, Captain Ernest Davis scored on a lay up and a charity shot to "sew up" the game. Moyler made the last basket for Norfolk on a foul shot. Final score S.T.C. 52 Norfolk State 50.

A SPORTSMAN WHO THOUGHT

Is the name Junius Kellogg familiar to your ears? Kellogg, whose hometown in Portsmouth, Virginia, is a star basketballer for Manhattan College in New York. Because Kellogg is one of the best players that Manhattan has, he was offered $1,000 to "throw" a game against Depaul University on January 15th. This he refused to do and reported the incident to his coach, who turned the matter over to the police. Kellogg satisfied himself for his action, because on the night before the "fixed" game, he could not sleep. The $1,000 offer was before him, but he thought of his school, his hardworking teammates, and his coach—inclusive honesty. What would you have done?

Gamblers have been apprehended and arrested for offering Kellogg this money. This great sportsman deserves all of the honors that athletes have to offer. Praise him! Praise him! He has done well by and for his fellow man.

S.T.C. VARSITY LOSES TO PORTSMOUTH VAGABONDS

In a preliminary contest before the S. T. C. - Norfolk State game, the junior varsity of S. T. C. was edged out by the Portsmouth "Vagabonds". Stukes paced the winners with 12 points, while C. Rodges bagged 16 for S. T. C.

Coach Williams is trying to line up some good opponents for his boys to be on the lookout for some good games.

On Jan. 23rd, the same varsity squad journeyed to Portsmouth, Va. for a return match. Again the J. V.'s were victorious by a score of 59 - 49. C. Rodgers led the attack with 18 points. Lonnie Davis, a freshman from Petersburg, Va. displayed some fancy and accurate passing to aid the cause.

Earlier on the same night the girl's team won over the Carverettes 25 - 12. Mycallop, Durham, Manley, Howard and Walford were the firing connors for the victors. Ideas Mycallop gained 18 points.

Playing St. Aug. on the Jan. 20, S. T. C. lost a thriller 68 - 65. Evans collected 12 points to pace St. Aug. while Capt. Earnest Davis of S. T. C. hit for 25. The first ten minutes were nip and tuck with the lead alternating many times, but St. Aug. gathered a big lead by halftime 42 - 29.

Coming back in the second half, the trio of Tootle, Henry, and E. Davis hit from all angles to lessen the gap. With 58 sec. left in the second half St. Aug. was ahead 68 - 60. Eddie Korneagy made good of a free shot; Alford Marbly scored a lay-up on a center pass from Atlas Davis made another lay up to make the score read 68 - 65. This was not enough as time finally ran out, and St. Aug. had maintained its lead.
