GAIL CAESAR IS "MISS TC"

After three days of extensive campaigning, the senior candidate, Miss Gail Angeline Caesar was elected Miss Winston-Salem Teachers College.

Our first lady is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker of this city. She was born December 12, 1940. She was reared in Forsyth County and was educated at the Carver Consolidated School.

While attending Carver, Miss Caesar was affiliated with the following organizations: choir, National Honor Society, Student Council, Junior Engineers Club, and Future Teachers of America.

Here at Teachers College, Miss Caesar is an education major and a music minor. She is affiliated with the choir, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Yearbook staff, and was listed in the 1961-62 edition of Who's Who Among Students In Colleges and Universities.

Miss Caesar was crowned by the president of the college, Dr. Kenneth R. Williams at the annual Coronation Day Services.

Miss Caesar's court included Ruby Bolden, first attendant, representing the junior class, Mary Barnes of the sophomore class, and Mary McKoy of the freshman class.

Miss T. C. has the following words to say concerning her title: "I shall be forever grateful to those who have made it possible for me to attain such a coveted honor. This experience will be recorded in my memories as being the most rewarding during my stay at Teachers College."

GLORIA TATE IS MISS RAM

Upon competing with Miss Faye Tabor, a sophomore, and Miss Helen Gore, a junior, Miss Gloria Jeanne Tate, a senior, captured the title as "Miss Ram."

Miss Tate is the daughter of Mrs. L. B. Tate. She was born September 4, 1941 in Goldsboro, North Carolina where she attended the Dillard High School.

While attending Dillard, Miss Tate was an active member of the band, student council, choir, dance group, and National Honor Society.

Presently, Miss Tate is enrolled in the Winston-Salem Teachers College School of Nursing. She is affiliated with the Student Nurses Association, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and was listed in the 1961-62 Edition of Who's Who Among Students in Colleges and Universities.

"Being crowned Miss Ram was an honorable event that will always share a part of my heart," Miss Tate said.

New President Lists Future Plans

Overcrowded conditions which presently exist in Teachers College dormitories will soon be ended. Three or four girls will no longer have to be crammed into one inadequate room.

Dr. Kenneth R. Williams, president of the college, promised these and other desired changes in a proposal of an expansion program which totals twenty million dollars.

The immediate range program includes the development of three new buildings; a dormitory which will accommodate 250 men, a science building, and a library. The present science building will be renovated to provide for a modern equipped speech and reading clinic. Bickett Hall dormitory will be converted into a dormitory for women. This expansion program totals $1,812,000.

A long range program is considering four additional dormitories for men, a new gymnasium and auditorium combination, two new classroom buildings, a new laundry, and a new president's home. Fries Auditorium will be converted into a theater. Kennedy Dining Hall will become a student union. Whitaker Gymnasium is the future dining hall.

The east end of the campus is a future site for recreational purposes which will include a small football practice field, a touch football, baseball, and softball field, outdoor basketball and volleyball courts, and several tennis courts. The development of such a campus will accommodate 3,000 students, the expected enrollment by 1975.

"We are considering the expansion of the curriculum in all areas that will be approved by the State Board of Higher Education and the Board of Trustees," he said. In the future, graduate courses will be offered leading to the M.A. degree. Teachers will be able to renew their certificates here at Teachers College. Commercial Education, pre-professional courses in medicine, law, and other professions are being considered. "We hope to constantly add to our curriculum."

Faculty members will be encouraged to increase their education by applying for fellowships and scholarships, Dr. Williams said.

JUNIORS' TALENT SHOW RATED GOOD

The junior class sponsored a talent show on October 19. The show was uniquely perfected and presented much quality talent that is found at Teachers College.

T. C. Band Is Improving

The marching band is under the direction of Mr. Harry E. Pickard. Because of the Director's ingenuity and patience, the band's appearance and performance have improved in the past few years.

Last year, the band had only one chance to wear their new uniforms. This year there is a great drive and desire on the part of the members of the band that has never been manifested before.

The half-time programs presented were: "H. M. S. Pinafore," "The Great Zorro," "Young Ideas," and "Diet Riot," which so captivated the imagination of the spectators that it was requested that Johnson C. Smith's fans be given an opportunity to witness this performance, "Young Ideas," although the weather was inclement and hazardous. Also, for our Homecoming parade, 15 bands were invited to participate, but only a few came because of the weather.

This year's band has 100 members. The spectacular drum major is Jasper (Jack) L. Robinson, a junior of Charlotte, N. C. Chief "Ramorette" is Jessie Verdell, a senior of Lexington, N. C. Other "Ramorettes" are Deloris Butler, a senior of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Joyce Henderson, a junior of Thomasville, N. C.; Helen McDowell, a junior of Charlotte, N. C.; Tempia Neal, a sophomore of Reidsville, N. C.; Ester McNeal, a freshman of Mount Airy, N. C.; Wilhemenia Turner, a freshman of Asheville, N. C.; and Peggy Jacobs, a freshman of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Announcers for our half-time performances were Mr. L. E. Burnham, a member of the faculty in the school of education, and a student, Gloria Gwyn, a senior of Mt. Airy, N. C. Student band director is Clifton Bowie, a senior of Kernersville, N. C.

Officers for the school year 1962-63 are: president, James Mc-

The Master and Mistress of Ceremony were Emmit Marty Robinson and Miss Avon Lawrence who portrayed "Nutty and Fudge." The main attractions of the show were the "Deltones," starring Hubert Hargett, better known as "Muddy Waters," the Atkinettes, who harmonized like the "McGuire Sisters," and the junior girls who sang with the "Frustrated Junior" Willie Grier, who loves too many girls. A new voice which was introduced was that of Miss Gloria Harrison, who co-starred with the frustrated junior.

Bruce Caesar and Leslie McClenon introduced a new hit entitled, "A Magic Wand." The harmony and perfected intonation of the duet was intriguing.

A portion of the show exhibited some of the latest fashions. Madame Lorraine Roberts narrated the presentations of attire for the four seasons and various occasions.

The most significant event of the entire occasion was the presentation of the "Junior Class Queen," who stepped out of a huge candle after the class stood with lighted candles. They then sang melodiously their class song which was in the tune of Exodus.

The Queen, whose eloquent beauty glowed excessively was dressed in a flamboyant black draped dress.

A policeman saw a woman lying in the gutter on Main St. Frantically he asked her, "Are you hurt badly, madam?"

"Oh, no, I'm not hurt at all," replied the woman. "I'm just saving a parking space for my husband."
