The News Argus.

VOLUME 4

WINSTON-SALEM STATE STATE COLLEGE, WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

NUMBER 2

THREE PEACE CORPS WORKERS RECRUIT

By Carol Thomas

Jan. 12 and ended Friday, Jan.

scheduled events for the entire Social Fellowship. student body. They also operated an information booth.

The team was introduced to the student body and faculty at creed, or color regularly enrolla chapel program Wednesday morning. Glennie Murphy, depufor the Peace Corps, spoke.

completed. informally about her personal experiences and encounters as a financially and under no discial life does not cease over- members with those dissenting seas. The rules governing social giving their reasons. life, she said, vary in different countries. Most girls will take an interest in this fact, she said.

ter was set up in the Alumni tual and personal development

Groove Phi Groove Organized on Campus

This organization was corroborated on Oct. 12, 1962 by a Three Peace Corps workers group of 14 men attending Morvisited the WSSC campus for a gan State College in Baltimore, three-day period of recruiting Md. who felt the need for transstudents to join the Peace Corps. mitting the complacent tradi-Their stay began Wednesday, tionally of psuedo fraternization. This process was developed by converging individual men into a unified brotherhood, to which they were invited and incorporate Groove Phi Groove

Criteria for Membership

Any male, regardless of race, ed as an advanced freshman at Winston-Salem State College may ty director of college recruiting become a member of this organior the Peace Corps, spoke.

In his speech he commented accord with the following: underon questions students usually goes initiation while a pledge; ask — pay, types of people want- agrees with the functions of this ed, training required, and the organization; has an accumulaworker's future after service is tive average of "C" at the time of initiation into Groove Phi Miss Cathy Brown also talked Groove Social Fellowship; is in periences and encounters as a financially and under no disvolunteer in the Philippines. She ciplinary restrictions; receives a indicated that a volunteer's so- two-third majority vote from the

Initiation

Initiation of new members A Peace Corps information cen- shall be in the spirit of intellec-

Hut. Students were invited to instead of physical harrassment Charter officers of Groove Phi Groove include (left to right) Willis phere and continuous relationcome and discuss the organiza(Continued on Page Two) and embarrassament, and shall Bennett, president; Thomas Gomillion, treasurer, and Weldon ship between members.

—Robert Manual Continuous

and embarrassament, and shall Bennett, president; Thomas Gomillion, treasurer, and Weldon ship between members.

—Robert Manual Continuous

the capacities for intellectual growth; (2) potential for personal and social responsibilities commensurate with the responsibilities of college graduates in a democratic society; (3) demonstration of physical fitness.

These shall not consist of such acts as paddle whipping, wearing of ludicrous clothing, etc., but rather acts geared around the John F. Kennedy Physical Fitness Program.

Purpose of Groove Phi Groove

Groove Phi Groove is a social organization in which men of like attainment and of the same standards, ideas and ideals, work together through self-expression to achieve and maintain stated cardinal principles. These principles are scholarship, unity, good character traits, and good leadership.

The men of Groove Phi Groove are one in aim and loyalty. Groove Phi Groove feels that it is a social organization having certain qualities which distinguish it from other fraternal organizations on campuses, but other organizations are first to be given names and not names out of which organization grows.

The name Groove Phi Groove is a descriptive title used to denote the warmness of atmos-

-Robert Belle

Students Form Variety of Groups

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Winston-Salem State College family President: Thomas Cunning- Jacqueline Hill; Sergeant-at- son; Treasurer: Miss Gerald Mcconsists of many different clubs ham; Vice-President: Miss Linda Arms: James Smith; Reporter: Donald; Parliamentarian: Isaac and organizations. The News Ar- Dawkins; Miss Bar- Lawrence Starks; Advisor: Mrs. McKie; Advisor: Mr. Galloway. about these groups. Printed be- Treasurer: Miss Laura Webbe; low are some of these organiza- Advisor: Mr. Maywood. tions, their officers and their Meetings are held the first retary: Clarence Watson; Adfaculty advisors. These organiza- Monday in each month.

Vice-President: Arthur Gray; Sectors, Adfaculty advisors. These organiza- Monday in each month. tions are in most cases open to PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB Pictures of Greek neophytes, ter; Treasurer: Miss Shirley Cla- Vice-President: Charles Anderhowever, are shown below and on pages six and seven of this

YOUNG DEMOCRATS CLUB

President: Arthur Gray; Vice-President: Miss Sinda Smith; Secretary: Miss Minnie Foster; Parliamentarian: Miss Carolyn Brown; Advisor: Mr. Williams Meetings are held twice a month on Wednesday.

SCIENCE CLUB

President: Robert Hoover; Vice-President: Miss Sylvia Jones; Secretary: Miss Dennyse Carter: Treasurer: Douglas Taborn; Advisor: Miss Oliver.

Meetings are held on first and third Wednesday nights.

MARSHALL CLUB

President: Miss Estelle Curry; Vice-President: Miss Elizabeth Carson; Secretary: Miss Carol Martin; Assistant Secretary: Miss Roberta Henry; Treasurer: Miss Dianne Blacknell; Reporter: Miss Jeanette Butler: Chaplain: Miss Sinda Smith; Ushers Committee: Miss Burmadeane George, Chairman; Advisor: Miss Mosby.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN CLUB President: Ezekiel Patten; Vice-President: Jerry Lawrence; Secretary: Miss Beverly Hendrix: Advisor: Mrs. Saunders.

CHARLOTTE CLUB

gus assigned a reporter, Trudy bara Phillips; Assistant Secre-McIver. McClure, to find out something tary: Miss Lutricia Wingate; anyone who is interested. The President: Nathan Teague; month. Greek organizations, however, Vice-President: Jerome Hanna; SOC are not included in this story. Secretary: Miss Johnnie McPhat-von; Assistant Treasurer: Miss son; Secretary: Miss Annie David-

URBANE SOCIETY

President: Samuel Couthen; Vice-President: Arthur Gray; Sec-

Meetings are held two times a

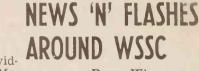

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB

President: Miss Rita Alston;

WSSC CHAPTER STUDENT NURSES ASSO. DISTRICT 4

President: Miss Gladys Rice; Vice-President: Miss Maggie Owens; Corresponding Secretary: Miss Ella Belle; Recording Secretary: Miss Queen Isler; Treasurer: Mr. James E. Herbert; Advisors: Mrs. Isom and Mrs. Reid.

Meetings are held every Wed-(Continued on Page Seven)

Rams Win

Durham — The mighty Rams dared travel in a snowstorm Saturday, Jan. 29 and reaped the reward of a 79-73 triumph over the North Carolina College Eagles.

Heroes were plentiful for the Rams, although they were missing big James Reid . . . he went to the Kate Bitting Reynolds Memorial Hospital Friday because

Earl Monroe scored 29 points to lead the Rams. Freshman William English, hooking with both hands, sank 26 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Captain Joe Cunningham swept both boards, grabbing 16 rebounds. Willis (Spider) Bennett took 10 re-

Ted Manning led NCC with 26 points. Albert Conner scored 14. By winning, the Rams made their CIAA record 9-1. They are

11-2 for the season. Morgan Is Next

Whitaker Gymnasium will be the scene of the mighty Rams' next cage test. They will play the Morgan Bears at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 2. They have beaten Morgan once, but Morgan is dangerous. The Bears hold a 20-point victory over A&T.

Two Road Games Two big road games are coming up for the mighty Rams. They will play the Johnson C. Smith Golden Bulls at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 5 in Charlotte. The Rams won a tough one from Smith in the Whitaker Gym, but will have to be careful in Charlotte.

The second tilt will be against A&T in Greensboro on campus Monday, Feb. 7. A&T has lost only one CIAA game this sea-

(Continued on Page Six)

Red-Dogs of Kappa The Kappa dogs D. Currie, N. Phillips, A. Phillips, W. Sellars, entertained the crowd with line songs and jokes.