

Students honored in Who's Who in America

The 1992 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN JUNIOR COLLEGES will include the names of 20 students from Chowan College who have been selected as national outstanding campus leaders.

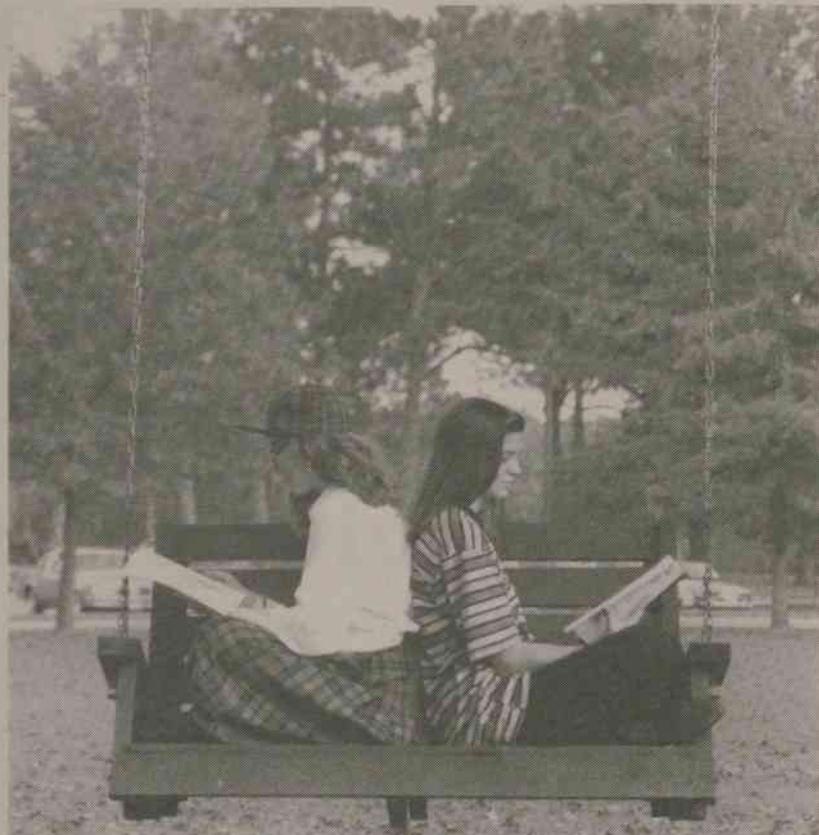

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

Students named this year from Chowan College, and their hometowns, are: Jessica Carver, Black Mountain, N.C.; Helena Curran, Mahasset, N.Y.; Robert Deacon, Conway, N.C.; Christie Denson, Virginia Beach, Va.; Jason Drake, Ahoskie, N.C.; Tracey Francis, Murfreesboro, N.C.; Preston Gist, Jr., Charlotte, N.C.; Julie Jordan, Aulander, N.C.; Tammy Joyner, Ahoskie, N.C.; Melissa Lewellen, Belhaven; Michael Moore, Colonial Heights, VA.; Christina Perkinson, Suffolk, VA.; John Tayloe, Aulander, N.C.; Natalie Taylor, Eure, N.C.; Patricia Trudel, Chelmsford, Ma.; Joyce White, Murfreesboro, N.C.; Stephen White, Eure, N.C.; Amy Wojtkowski, Granite Quarry, N.C.; Phillip Wilson, Little River, S.C.; Melisa Wright, Franklin, Va.

The campus is swinging this spring!

Photo by freshman Nestor Varona

News Notes

Chowan signs transfer agreements

Chowan has signed transfer agreements with four community colleges easing the way for transfer students to enter four-year degree programs.

Agreements have been signed with Eastern Shore Community College in Virginia; Roanoke-Chowan Community College in Ahoskie; Halifax Community College in Roanoke Rapids and Paul D. Camp Community College in Franklin, Virginia.

According to Dr. Franklin Lowe, vice president for academics at Chowan, students who have completed general education programs at these community colleges can transfer to Chowan with junior status.

For more information about transferring to Chowan, contact the Office of Admissions, P.O. Box 1848, Murfreesboro, N. C.; 398-4101.

Spivey elected chairman, Rose chairs executive committee

Robert B. Spivey, of Windsor, has been elected chairman of the Chowan College Board of Trustees, according to Dr. Jerry F. Jackson, president of the college. Spivey has served for one year as chairman and was elected to serve a second one-year term by the board of trustees. He served two previous terms as a Chowan trustee and advisor.

Thomas M. McCrary, of Raleigh, was elected vice chairman of the board. W. Frank Rose, Jr., of Rose Bros. Paving, Ahoskie, was elected chairman of the executive committee of the board of trustees.

Spivey recently retired as vice president of LADD Furniture, Inc., and as president of Lea Lumber and Plywood Division. A Windsor native, he is a Sunday School teacher and past chairman of the Board of Deacons at Cashie Baptist Church. He currently serves as a director on the Hospital Board of Directors of Pitt Memorial Hospital in Greenville and as a director of the Hope Foundation in Windsor.

New English courses offered at Chowan

Shakespeare, Faulkner, the Romantic poets, Chaucer, modern drama - - as subjects, these are discussed right now in English classes at Chowan. But, next year, entire courses focusing on these individual subjects will be offered as Chowan offers the four-year degree in English. Although designed particularly for English majors, these courses will also satisfy elective requirements for anyone who wants to take an upper level English course.

In the fall, Chowan will offer these three new English courses: Shakespeare, Fiction, and Introduction to Literary Studies. Next spring, the college expects to offer Medieval Literature, Romantic Literature, and Advanced Grammar or Advanced Composition.

For the next couple of years, entirely new courses will be offered in order to fulfill the needs of English majors.

Many students major in English because they want to teach grammar or literature, or they wish to continue talking about literature in a classroom situation. As part of the four-year degree curriculum, students at Chowan will also be able to earn certification to teach English.

An English major takes 36 hours of literary studies above English 101 and 102. Shakespeare is required and so is an advanced grammar or advanced composition course. For more information about the English program at Chowan, contact Dr. Ken Wolfskill, chairman of the department of language and literature, 398-4101, Ext. 242.

Faculty Focus

The Krueger School of Graphic Communications, Dean Gilbert, chairman of the department, and Peter Squire, director of development for printing technology, were featured in the December issue of The Pica Scanner.

Dr. Ken Craig and Dr. David Gowler, professors of religion, participated in the 1991 meeting of American Academy of Religion / Society of Biblical Literature. Dr. Craig presented a paper entitled "Asking for Rhetoric: Questions in the Deuteronomical History." Dr. Gowler chaired the session on Rhetoric and the New Testament.

Carole Nicholson, professor of music, was selected to serve as a judge at two piano competitions this spring: The Eastern N.C. Federation of Music Clubs Festival at the School of Music at East Carolina University in February and the Raleigh Young Artists Scholarship Auditions at Meredith College in March.

Linda Tripp, director of counseling, and Gilbert Tripp, professor of science, took an "outreach" journey on February 10 and 11 to Cape Hatteras School in Buxton, N. C. -- a small rural school on the Outer Banks. They taught classes, conducted labs and lectures in DNA extraction, biology, and other topics for over 600 students for two days.

Phyllis Dewar, professor of science, also "reached out" to students at the Island Academy in Buxton as part of the speaker's bureau program at Chowan.

Planned Giving

To assist you with your planned giving (estate planning), the Chowan College Development Office would be pleased to send you information on:

☐ How to make a gift to Chowan College and also receive income for your lifetime;

Requested by:

(Mr., Mrs., Ms., Miss, Dr., Rev.) (first Name, Middle Initial, Last Name)

(Address-if Box number, please give street address also)

(City) (State) (Zip)

Phone Number: Home ( ) Business ( )

Enclose this clipping in an envelope and mail to: Development Office, Chowan College, P.O. Box 1848, Murfreesboro, NC 27855, or call 919/398-4101