

Class of '64 active in civic, business, church activities

Anne Carter Evans is the mother of twin boys and lives in Burlington.

Wesley Steven Hauser is president and CEO for HKS Hardware and Hollow Metal, Inc., in East Bend.

Thornton W. Thomas, Jr., lives in Drewville, VA, where he is foreman and supervisor with Southampton Correctional Center.

Ronald G. Adleman is a dentist in Midlothian, VA.

Jim Parker lives in Suffolk, VA, where he is a history and government teacher at Nansemond River High School.

Robert B. Caper is assistant county supervisor with the Farmers Home Administration in Roanoke Rapids.

Eric P. Jones is owner and manager of J. B. Jones Co., Inc., and lives in LaCrosse, VA.

Venice Dan Piner received his bachelor's degree from East Carolina University after graduating from Chowan. He is now owner of Dancon Enterprises in Zebulon and is the father of four children.

William Henry Windley, III, is associated with Roses Stores in Henderson as a merchandise logistics manager. He is married and the father of two children.

Lloyd "Mike" Jordan, a program analyst for the Naval Supply Systems Command, lives in Chesapeake, VA, with his wife and two sons.

Mark E. Stevens has held many jobs since graduating from Chowan. They include radio and television broadcasting, electronics technician and business manager. He is currently administrator and owner of "Berry Hill Nursing Home" and is still teaching music through his own music ministry which developed through the 24 years he served as minister of music in Oxford and South Boston, VA.

Al Dail, Jr., and Linda Jernigan Dail live in Powhatan, VA, and they are the parents of three children. Al is president of Wyndham Properties, Inc., and Linda is a teacher at Pocahontas Middle School.

Claudia Markham Raderis is a lifeline coordinator and Golden Care Advisor with Riverside Regional Medical Center in Newport News, VA.

Susan Joy Strawn-Holloway lives in Lenoir where she is a program coordinator with the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety's community service work program.

Nellie B. Nones is a medical transcriptionist at the Memorial Hospital at Easton and lives in Centreville, MD.

The Anniversary Banquet was one of the highlights of Homecoming weekend and some of the members of the Class of 1969 posed for a photograph following the dinner. Left to right are David W. Herring, Jacqueline C. Presley, Mary J. Presley, Nellie Bartlett Nones, Rose Drake Howell, Janet E. Thornton, Thomas J. Ballance and Mary Jo Wilson Williams.

Carllyle O. Hoggard lives in Powellsville where he is a rural letter carrier with the U. S. Postal Services. He is also a member of the National Guard and serves as a military personnel technician.

Peggy Lancaster is a family services supervisor with Chesapeake Social Services and resides in Chesapeake, VA.

Luther Stephen Dale is district manager of Diversey Corporation and lives in Pleasant Garden. He has one son, Nathan Dewitt, who attends Southeast High school.

Thomas J. Ballance lives in Norfolk where he is a social studies teacher at Norfolk Christian High School.

Michael D. Oliver owns and operates Trade Typesetting in Richmond, VA.

Harison S. Greenlaw received bachelor and masters degrees at the University of Mississippi and is now associated with the University of South Carolina.

Amy Brown Smith is associated with Carteret General Hospital in Morehead City as a staff registered nurse in the emergency department.

Terry Wilde lives in Honesdale, PA, where he is an agent for Prudential Insurance Co. He is married and the father of two daughters.

David W. Herring received a bachelor's degree from James Madison University after graduation from Chowan and is now project accounting manager for Tompkins Builders in Arlington, VA.

Carolyn Page Richard lives in Chesapeake, VA, where she is associated with Chesapeake Public Schools. The mother of a son, Kyle, she is also the secretary for Covenant United Methodist Church.

Marvin L. Lassiter, Jr., lives in Roanoke Rapids where he is the Halifax County agency manager for the Farm Bureau Insurance Co.

Betty Jean Crosby is employed by Duke University Medical Center as a staff nurse in the clinical research unit and she lives in Butner with her husband and two sons.

Vicki Maude Gilbert resides in Clemmons where she is a physical education teacher and department head in the Winston-Salem and Forsyth County Schools.

Ronald W. Estes is president and owner of Battlefield Roofing Company and lives in Gainesville, VA, with his wife and three children.

Alfreida (Parker) Jordan was awarded a undergraduate degree by East Carolina University after she graduated from Chowan. She is now a pre-school program coordinator for the Pitt County Mental Health Center.

Ronald W. Williams lives in Suffolk, VA, with his wife and son. He is currently associated with the Virginia Department of Transportation as a right-of-way agent specialist.

Members engaged in various professions, businesses

In beautiful warm fall weather, members of the alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends of the college enjoyed an "old fashion" barbecue on the Alumni Green on Homecoming Day. The picnic outing, which has become a tradition at Chowan, was held prior to the annual Homecoming gridiron classic in Garrison Stadium.

