

Scholarship winners

Ten students majoring in printing production and imaging technology were awarded $500.00 scholarships by the Printing Industries of the Carolinas (PICA) Foundation for their next year of study at Chowan College. The awards were based on the student's academic ability, leadership potential and financial need. Those receiving the grants are pictured with two of their instructors and Barrie Davis, of Zebulon, a trustee of the PICA Foundation. Left to right: Sally Schaible, instructor; Brooks Lewis, Roanoke Rapids; David Gioco, Wethersfield, CN; Sarah DeJarnette, Gladys, VA; Chad Barefoot, Garner; Tammy Gaskins, Ernul; Christie Scott, Danville, VA; Matt Edwards, Eure; Ryan Vinyard, Pennsville, NJ; James Dalton, Newport; Tina Laine, Concord, CA; Barris Davis; and Joe Colaric, instructor. (Photo by W. A. Krueger School of Graphic Communications)

Nineteen seniors named to Who's Who edition

The 1995 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will include the names of 19 seniors from Chowan College who have been selected as national outstanding leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries.

Those students included are: Deborah Blowe Edwards, John Roy Ellis, Andrew Paul, Sheila Millet Lewis, Nancy B. Nelson and Mary Vance Hussein, all from Murfreesboro; Ann E. Levy of Como; Jessica Ruth Kiser of Suffolk, VA; Anita Ann Gaskins of New Bern; and Ronald Earl Barringer of Washington, NC.

Also, Matthew Wayne Suggs of King George, VA; Phynese Nicole Lewis of Henderson; Billie Rae Pullen of Spotsylvania, VA; Carle Marie Culbertson of Fredericksburg, VA; Krista Lynne Fish of Blue Mountain Lake, NY.

Completing the listing are Sloan Harrison Holliday of Winchester, VA; Angela W. Noe of Morehead City; Terry Hall Robbins of Rich Square; and, Ellis Lee Stephens, III, of LaGrange.

Awards based on academic achievement, service to community, extracurricular activities

Chowan Today

USPS 715-880 ISSN 1051-9580

Herman W. Gatewood Editor and Director of College Relations
E. Vincent Tilson Vice President for Development
Kevin L. Clary Director of Annual Giving and Alumni Services
Jack Goldberg Sports Information Director

Published by Chowan College, a four-year senior college founded in 1848 and controlled by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The college, located in Murfreesboro, North Carolina, returned to four-year status after an unanimous vote by the college's Board of Trustees on September 8, 1990.

Comments, suggestions and informational submissions from alumni, friends and parents are welcome. Please send them to Director of College Relations, PO Box 1848, Murfreesboro, N. C., 27855.

Published four times a year in March, June, September and December. Postmaster: Send 3575 to Chowan Today, Chowan College, PO Box 1848, Murfreesboro, N. C., 27855.

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT MURFREESBORO, NORTH CAROLINA (27855) AND ADDITIONAL MAILING OFFICES

Bass appointed to head Annual Giving efforts, annual "Day for Chowan" drive

Laurie Bass, a native of Rutherford County, has been appointed Chowan College's Director of Annual Giving and "Day for Chowan." She assumed her position earlier this month and coordinated the college's 1994 fund-raising event.

"I am very pleased that Miss Bass has joined our staff," said E. Vincent Tilson, vice president for development, "and I am confident that she will render outstanding service in this new position."

Bass, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Bass of Forest City, received her undergraduate degree at Gardner-Webb University. She has also completed one year of graduate work in counseling at Gardner-Webb.

Prior to joining the Chowan development staff, Miss Bass was associated with the North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Fort Caswell and also has experience as a manager and buyer with a retail firm.

"As Director of 'Day for Chowan,' Miss Bass will work with the steering committees, team captains and solicitors for this very important annual fund-raising effort of the college," Tilson said.

Whitley elected president of Ambassadors

Suzanne Whitley, a business administration major from Conway, has been elected president of the Chowan Ambassadors for the 1994-95 academic year.

A service organization to serve as hosts and hostesses at various functions of the college, the Chowan Ambassadors also serve as tour guides for prospective students and their families.

With Kevin Clary, director of annual giving and alumni services as advisor, the Ambassadors participate in numerous college functions and work closely with the Office of the President as well as the Office of Development and the Office of Student Enrollment.

James Dalton, a graphic communications major from New Bern, is vice president of the group. Lisa Askew, a junior from Murfreesboro, will fill the office of secretary.

Whitley

Death claims Felix Arnold, former trustee

The Rev. J. Felix Arnold of 1840 Gleneagles Lane, Wilmington, died on Friday, September 30, 1994. He was born in Mississippi on July 3, 1910.

The Rev. Mr. Arnold was Pastor Emeritus of Enfield Baptist Church, where he had served as pastor for 28 years. He was a trustee of Chowan College for 22 years and served as Chairman of the Board for 11 years. He also served in the U. S. Navy as a chaplain on active during World War II.

He was a former moderator of the North Roanoke Baptist Association and a past president of the Enfield Lions Club. Arnold served two terms on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and 12 years on the Council on Christian Higher Education.

He as a graduate of Mississippi College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and also completed special studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York City.

Arnold was honored by the Board of Trustees when he last served as its chairman and was presented a plaque extolling his service to Chowan. He was cited for his contribution of "praiseworthy service to Chowan and for his wise counsel in the role of trustee and advisor."

A scholarship in his honor was established in 1991 by members of his family.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Frances Marks Arnold; five children, Felice (Mrs. L. J.) Parent, of Wilkesboro; Louann Clarke of Greensboro; Robert Marks Arnold of Raleigh; John "Jack" Arnold, Jr., of Chapel Hill; and Claude Camp Arnold of Wilmington. Ten grandchildren also survive.

A memorial service was conducted on October 3 in First Baptist Church in Wilmington by Dr. Michael Queen.

In lieu of flowers, the family requested that memorials be made to Chowan College.