

Service awards presented at President's Banquet

Twenty-five members of the Chowan College faculty and staff were recognized at the annual President's Banquet in August for completing various lengths of service to the institution.

Three members, Mrs. Bertha L. Brown, Dr. Garth D. Faile and Dr. John W. Gosnell, were inducted into the prestigious "Order of Lux et Veritas" and honored for completing a quarter century of service.

The banquet, which officially marked the beginning of the 1996-97 academic session, was held in Thomas Cafeteria with Dr. B. Franklin Lowe, vice president for academic affairs, presiding.

Dr. Stanley G. Lott, who is beginning his first academic session as president of the institution, was the featured speaker for the evening. He was introduced by Mr. Robert B. Spivey of Windsor, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The service awards were presented by Dr. Lott and Mr. Spivey, with the assistance of Dr. Lowe.

The Lux et Veritas induction ceremonies were conducted by the inductees' respective supervisor. Mrs. Bertha Brown was inducted by Mr. Richard Lefevre, interim vice president for business affairs; Dr. Faile was inducted by Dr. B. Franklin Lowe; and Dr. Gosnell was inducted by Dr. Danny G. Moore, chairman of the department of social science.

LUX et VERITAS—Three members of the faculty and staff received special recognition and were inducted into the Order of Lux et Veritas. Dr. John W. Gosnell, left, who retired at the end of the 1995-96 year, served as a member of the social science faculty. Mrs. Bertha L. Brown has been employed in the business office for the past twenty-five years, and Dr. Garth D. Faile continues to serve as chairman of the department of science.

Dr. Calvin I. Owens, left, and Dr. John Davis received recognition for fifteen years with the college.

THREE DECADES—Among those completing thirty years of continuous service to the college were, left to right, Mr. Clifton S. Collins, Mrs. Geraldine Harris, Mrs. Carol Sexton and Mr. George Hazelton. Mrs. Phyllis P. Dewar and Mr. Edward Holloman were also recognized for three decades of service, but were not present when the photo was made.

ABOVE—Left to right, Mrs. Renee R. Felts, Mrs. Rebecca L. McLawhorn and Mrs. Sherry D. Duncan each received awards for their ten years of service.

Mr. William B. Godwin (left) has served as a member of the Maintenance Department for twenty years.

FIVE YEAR SERVICE AWARDS—Receiving recognition for five years of service to Chowan were, front row, left to right: Mrs. Janet Rogers, Mrs. Julie West, Mrs. Barbara M. Davis and Mrs. Austine O. Evans. Back row, Dr. Richard Gay, Mr. E. Dean Gilbert, Mrs. Jane B. Taylor, and Mrs. Patsy W. Taylor. Not present when photo was made were Dr. Charles Bentley, Mrs. Joyce M. Garrison, Mrs. Bettie B. Harrelle, Mrs. Loueen B. Leonard and Mr. Ricky E. Morris.