Surface named assistant athletics director

In a move to intensify Chowan's new NCAA Division III status, Dan Surface was named assistant director of athletics November 24.

"Dan's extensive experience with Chowan College athletics will greatly benefit the department and school as we make the move to become a viable force in athletics at the Division III level," stated Athletics Director Diane Morea. "Having Dan as a member of the administrative team will strengthen the overall team effort as we begin to move Chowan athletics to a new level. His knowledge of the institution, athletics and the tremendous network of local boosters that he is acquainted with, will bring the needed perspective to the action plan as we lay groundwork for improvements to programs and facilities," Morea continued.

Holding a B.A. from Guilford College and M.S. from the University of Tennessee, Surface joined the Chowan team in 1970. After a four-year hiatus as head football coach for Floyd County High School in Floyd, Va. during the 70's, he returned to Chowan in 1979 as chair of the department of health & physical education and defensive coordinator of football. He was named head football coach three years ago.

"The football program at Chowan is now poised to begin a new era," declared Surface, "and I have reached a point in my professional career where I welcome the opportunity and challenge to work with the administration of all sports offered by the college," he continued. "Chowan's football program has shed the junior college perception and now stands ready to repeat and enjoy the success and status it experienced as a two-year school, in its new role as a four-year, NCAA affiliated institution."

Looking to a bright future for Chowan athletics, Surface stated, "The traditions of the past can become the building blocks of the future. I look forward to becoming a part of the administrative unit that will build those blocks."

Surface's new administrative duties will include the marketing and operation of Chowan's Helms Athletic Center. "The task for our athletic program is a tremendous one, and one that will be able to utilize much of Dan's expertise," Morea added.

On the Lookout

LOST BRAVES!

Braves Club Executive Director Jim Garrison and his staff have made locating former Chowan athletes a top priority. To strengthen the bond of athletic alumni, Garrison's team is working hard to locate former Chowan Braves.

Yearbooks, catalogs and alumni listings are under scrutiny for teammate information and assistance from current Braves Club directors and members is providing valuable clues. In addition, the staff is also using the latest in Internet search tools.

"We believe that keeping in touch with our athletic alumni is extremely important," says Garrison. "We have a good found list as a base, but are still looking for many more," explains the former coach.

Assistant Braves Club Director Greg English is guiding the search. "Once we locate our missing athletes, we will look forward to talking with them and scheduling events in various regions for groups to come together," says English. "We hope that they will want to join us in making the organization even stronger for future Chowan athletes."

The Braves Club is requesting information regarding alumni who were previously involved, but not currently connected, with the Chowan athletic program. If you have information regarding the whereabouts of former athletes, please send the information to: Braves Club, Chowan College, PO Box 1848, Murfreesboro, NC 27855.
