

Music Ministry Gives Cultural Service

MUSICALLY TALENTED CHOWANIANS take culture and music to multitudes of people in North Carolina and Virginia.

MURFREESBORO — Annual choral tours carry the music ministry of Chowan College far beyond the boundaries of Hertford County, or even the Roanoke-Chowan area. The Girls' Ensemble provides music and inspiration for Baptist Associational meetings and other significant occasions. Instrumental music provided by Chowan's band sets the scene for pageants, parades and athletic events. Concerts are held throughout the school year, especially at Christmas and Easter.

These are merely a few of the ways that the Chowan College Choir, the Chowan Girls' Ensemble, the Chowan College Touring Choir, Chowan College's band and other musical organizations composed of students at Chowan have come a long way during recent years in establishing themselves as permanent instruments for cultural service in the area.

1957 CHOWAN GRADUATE—John Powell has been employed as a Linotype operator on The Herald since his graduation from Chowan College School of Graphic Arts. He, his wife, and two children reside in Ahoskie. Chowan graduates also employed by The Herald are Bobby McDaniel and Mary Jane Daughtry. The former works in the commercial printing department and Miss Daughtry is a Justewriter operator. Many newspaper plants and printers throughout the state and this area now employ alumni of the School of Graphic Arts.
