SPRING FESTIVAL — While a flower girl and the audience looks on, Pauline Robinson of Ahoskie, Chowan's Queen of Spring, is escorted to the stage by Pete Carpenter of Virginia Beach.

Retired Colonel New Math Professor

MURFREESBORO — A retired lieutenant colonel who returned to college after 26 years' service in the U.S. Army to work on his master's, with the goal of becoming a teacher, has been named professor of mathematics at Chowan College.

He is Acheson A. Harden Jr., who did his undergraduate work at Williams College in Williams-ton, Mass. He received his T.M.A. in May of this year from North Carolina State University at Raleigh.

A native of New York City,

Harden was associated with the signal corps of the Army where he was responsible for the supervision, education and training of up to 300 men.

He is married and has three children.
