Four new coaches join Chowan football team

Four new coaches have joined the coaching staff for the Chowan Braves football team this year.

Daryl Allen begins his first season as offensive line coach. After graduating from Perquimans High School, Allen played center and linebacker at Chowan before finishing his college education at Guilford College in 1959. For the last 19 years, Allen has coached at Ahoskie and consolidated Hertford County High School, winning 4 Eastern Championships while finishing state runner-up twice. One of the premier high school coaches in North Carolina, Allen recently retired after an illustrious 31-year career. Allen's overall record of 242-98-6 ranked him third best among the state's active coaches.

Allen and his wife, Katherine, have three children, Donna, Eddie, Kathy, and five grandchildren, Lauren, Daryl, Dare, Johnny, and Kristina.

Bob Goff begins his first season at Chowan as the linebacker coach. Goff, a native of Spring Valley, New York, will be a graduate assistant. A graduate of Bradley University with a B.S. degree, he has done graduate study work at Springfield College and the University of Maine. Goff has extensive experience, having served as Head Coach in five schools in New York, Maine and New Hampshire.

Goff and his wife, Melissa, have five children, Rebecca, Brian, Robyn, Colleen, and Joshua.

Ryan Poe begins his first season at Chowan College as the defensive line coach. A 1990 graduate of Troy State University with a B.A. in journalism, Poe was an offensive center, a 4-year letterman, and a member of the 1987 team that won the NCAA Division II National Championship.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and a graduate of Central High School, Poe is one of the bachelors on the coaching staff.

Lonnie Mister also joins the coaching staff as the wide-receiver coach. Mister attended Chowan for two years in 1984-85. While at Chowan, Mister played quarterback, earning All-Region X honors his sophomore year and being named MVP of the Coastal Conference All-Star game. After graduating from Chowan, Mister continued his education at North Alabama College on a football scholarship earning a B.S. in physical education and criminal science.

Named second team All-Conference his senior year, Mister will be a graduate assistant at Chowan while working on his master's degree. Mister is one of the bachelors on the coaching staff.
