

Braves Defeat Montgomery

For three long periods in Rockville, Md. Saturday it appeared that Chowan would be making the trip to play Wesley with a 6-1 record and out of the top ten instead of with a perfect mark and national rating no lower than sixth.

Then the Braves came to life and the offense and defense each contributed a touchdown to down fired-up Montgomery Com-

Reasoner to Join ABC

NEW YORK (AP) — Harry Reasoner will leave CBS to join ABC on Monday, Dec. 7, as coanchor of the network's evening news show, replacing Frank Reynolds.

ABC said today that Reasoner would share duties on the show with Howard K. Smith, another former CBS newsmen, who is in Washington.

An industry source said Reasoner had signed a five-year contract with ABC for a salary of about $200,000 a year.

Reasoner, who joined CBS News in 1956, is cohost of "60 Minutes," with Mike Wallace, and anchor of the CBS Sunday News.

ABC said Reynolds would become a special correspondent and would do occasional documentaries. He became anchor in May 1968.

ABC has had its news program under almost continuous revision in recent years in an effort to improve its third-place standing, far to the rear of CBS and NBC.

Post May Print Again

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Saturday Evening Post, the queen of America's magazines until heavy losses ended its publication 22 months ago, may be back on the nation's newsstands next spring as a quarterly publication.

A Curtis Publishing Co. spokesman said the first issue would come off the presses in April.

Howard W. Taylor Jr., a lawyer representing Curtis, said no decision had been reached on the new Post's size, format or price. But he said the first cover would be like the magazine of old, featuring a drawing by artist Norman Rockwell.

munity College eleven, 14-7, in a non-conference game.

The story prior to this bit of life-saving action could be summed up in one word—"defense." The Braves, contrary to the 7-0 deficit, had it and the Knights most certainly had it.

All Montgomery's defense did through the first three quarters of play and twice in the first half was to stop Chowan three times on fourth and one situation. One yard looked short to Coach Garrison and his Braves and with the utmost confidence they went for the first down. What they ran into was a giant front wall, the biggest they had seen this year.

The Knights were trying to win one for a homecoming crowd, with attendance off due to dampness and the threat of rain. The way they played in the first half, it began to look as if Chowan had been looking ahead to next week's game against Wesley and was about to suffer a stunning setback.

Compounding the problem for the Braves' backs was the slippery turf and mud hole on one side of the field. When Ronnie Mack and Nat Wright tried to cut, they found themselves ingloriously falling to the ground. One play by defensive back Earl Gibson, again turning in a sterling performance, he gained three yards without taking one step. He slid that far before the tackle was completed.

Chowan's passing game was ineffective in the first half being quarterback Dale McCafferty, so Paul Black of Camp Lejeune received his big chance. He didn't flub it. With Chowan taking possession on their own 45 following a 25-yard punt return by Gibson, who also made the game's lone interception, Black drove the team the distance. The big gainers were the dandy duo of Mack and Wright, and Black contributed a key pass on a third and four situation to keep the drive going. The pass was complete to Wright on the one and Mack ran it in on the next play. The extra point was good by Bob Kilbourne and the clock showed 12:04 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Moments later Chowan stunned the Knights when reserve linesman Mickey Outten broke through to block a punt and big Steve Carter scooped the ball up and rambled into the end zone. He had never covered a more important 10 yards. Again Kilbourne's kick was good and Chowan settled down to protect its 14-7 lead. The defense made the plays and as the game ended the Braves blew a sigh of relief and again began thinking about Wesley. For the past sixty minutes at least Dover, Del. had been forced off their minds by the upset-minded Knights.

Defensively for the Braves, end Danny Croom of Kinston proved why he is sought by ACC teams and again was the unmovable object. Tackle Ed Love of Virginia Beach also played an excellent game as did backs Gibson and Bob Comerford, who must be one of the most vicious tacklers of any 5-7 back in the league (as well as much bigger backs).

In the offensive line, tackle John Bowles was Mr. Effective, consistently making the holes as did the other tackle, Joe Flora, and guard Rickey Eason. In fact, when the Braves finally came to life they all played well.

Majorettes don't stop

The Chowan majorettes have by no means finished their work for the year. As well as their performances at past home football games, they will twirl in the Murfreesboro Christmas Parade. Captained by Jackie Pemberton (rear center), the team members are (from left to right) Joyce Blackmon, Andrea Luce, Jean Knaub, Madelyn Denise, and Amy Gardner.

Intramural Play Underway

Men's intramural sport competition is in full swing at this time. The football season has just been completed except for the all-star game which is to be played on November 10 at night in the stadium.

The Stompers beat the Hole in the Wall (Superintendent's Hall), who came in second in the National League, for the championship. Bob Underwood is the unit manager for the Stompers.

The only undefeated team in regular season play was the Spartans (Stone Hall and Columns) who finished with a 12-0 record. They emerged as the number three team in the play-off.

Chowan Upset By Wesley

By LEE COPELAND
Herald Sports Editor

DOVER, Del.—Chowan College Braves got started on the wrong foot with an offside penalty on the opening kickoff and that's the way the game, against Wesley Junior College, went Saturday night.

Chowan dropped the contest 37-17.

The defense just couldn't get together, letting Wesley drive in for a score in the first six plays of the game. But it also set up the first two scores for the Braves with a fumble recovery on the Wesley nine-yard line and a blocked punt at the Wolverines' 39.

Chowan's quarterback Dale McCafferty and split end "Wild" Bill Harris had a good night, connecting on both of the Chowan touchdowns. One was a nine-yard shot and the other a 26-yard bomb.

Chowan breaks were few and far between as Wesley took the opening kickoff and marched 77 yards in six plays with quarterback Brian McAuley hitting end Scott Meseroll with a 24-yard scoring pass.

The extra point was good and Wesley jumped to a 7-0 lead, never to fall behind.

The ball changed hands until Wesley gained possession at its own 36 and marched to the Chowan one, where halfback Brian Chiles picked up the touchdown.

Early in the second period, the Braves' defense forced a fumble and Chowan linebacker Jerry Borum recovered at the "Wolverines' nine-yard line.

On the next play, McCafferty fired an aerial shot to Harris for the score.

Bob Kilbourne made good the conversion and the score moved to 14-7, Wesley.

Midway through the second quarter Borum blocked a Wolverine punt and Steve Carter recovered at the Wesley 34.

Six plays later Chowan punted and Wesley took over on its own 37-yard line.

Six plays afterwards, McAuley hit Meseroll on a 25-yard aerial for his second score of the night.

The two-point conversion was good, making the score 30-10, Wesley.

The Wolverines attempted an onside kick and recovered a McAuley fumble at its own 34 only to have it intercepted by Dan Weidal, Wolverine defensive back.

Midway through the third period, Chowan drove 70 yards in four plays on passes from McCafferty to Harris and tailback Ronnie Mack.

Harris picked up the six-pointer on a 26-yard aerial.

Wesley countered with a 47-yard scoring drive after an attempted onside kick failed for the Braves.

The extra point kick was tipped by a Chowan defender but the ball hit the cross bar and bounced good.

A McCafferty, Harris pass and a six-yard carry by Nat Wright, Chowan flanker, moved the ball to the 16-yard line.

On fourth down, Kilbourne kicked a 26-yard field goal to move Chowan to within four of the score jumped to 14-10.

Wesley returned the kick to its own 26 and marched 84 yards in seven plays for another TD.

The two-point conversion was good, making the half time score 22-10, Wesley.

Chowan fumbled the first play of the second half and Wesley recovered.

The Braves' defense held and forced the Wolverines to punt.

Six plays afterwards, McAuley hit Meseroll on a 25-yard aerial for his second score of the night.

The final period was a defensive battle with neither team scoring.

Final score was Chowan 17, Wesley 37.

New Disease Discovered

BOSTON (AP) — A group of Los Angeles doctors reported today they had discovered a new and fatal disease among drug users. They said the disease destroys arteries leading to major organs.

The doctors said in The New England Journal of Medicine that they have observed 14 patients who have used drugs for periods of three months to five years. Of these, the physicians said, four have died of the disease, which they call "necrotizing angitis."
