According to Clayton Lewis, Chowan's dean of students, all students from North Carolina and Virginia high schools have been invited to attend the program.

Lewis said the objective of the conference is to promote international understanding and goodwill. Serving as resource persons will be 20 international officers from Ft. Eustis, Va. and international students from Chowan and Virginia and North Carolina high schools. Murfreesboro Rotarians and Chowan social science professors will head discussion groups which will consider life styles, govern-3.25 ment and economic conditions.

Crippen is a graduate of East Carolina University where he 3.21 received the B.S. and M.A. degrees in geography education. He has done additional graduate study at William and Mary, which granted him an Advanced Certificate in School Administration and Supervision in Crippen is in his fourth year at Menchville High School and previously taught four years at Ferguson High School. His experience includes teaching courses for East Carolina University, Christopher Newport College, and the extension schools of University of Tampa and George Washington University.

He received three teaching awards in 1972. Crippen was named Geography Teacher of the Year by the National Council for Geographic Education, was voted Teacher of the Year by the Peninsula Jaycees, and was runner-up as Virginia Jaycees Teacher of the Year.

Widespread Support Matthews said support for the campaign has been widespread. He said the largest gift has been the $100,000 from the Parkers. The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation of Winston-Salem has made two grants, noted Matthews, totaling $70,000. The first was for $25,000 and the second, a challenge grant requiring matching funds, for $45,000.

Year Plans Are Listed

Everyone else has their group to hang around also. We ask that each of you give yourself and us a chance to help each other.

The BSU-CCF has long range plans for the year. These plans include a Fall retreat for a weekend and a Fall Convention in Asheville, N. C. in November. Events on the calendar for the next semester include a Spring retreat and a state wide Spring Conference again in Asheville. Throughout the year there are weekly meetings on Monday night, Tuesday night, Wednesday morning prayer breakfast in the cafeteria. In addition, there are plans for a cookout, off-campus social, and a coffeehouse.

Everyone, including the faculty and staff of Chowan, are invited to attend the meetings and share in our experiences as well as exponding on experiences of their own. Keep a close check on the bulletin boards in Marks Hall for the times of these events and when some special events are

Want Ads No Man's Land

Job titles should be sexless, and we are pleased to learn that the District of Columbia's Mannower Administration is setting a good example with a "dictionary" "his" and "her" plications out of employment.

The document lists the names of about 250 occupations, giving the old title side by side with a sexless alternative. For example: cleaner for charwoman, cobbler for shoe repairman. elevator mechanic for elevator repairman, hotel cleaner for chambermaid.

We haven't heard whether the agency intends to update the word "manpower" in its name. If so, we hope the substitute will be nothing so contrived as "per-sonpower." Where the language can be used appropriately and easily to omit unnecessary allusions to sex, well and good. Verbal contortions should be
