

Love (bow) and Keenan Paddle to Victory (Photo by Pattie Bolgosano)

Kenan Wins Twice In Canoe Inaugural

By DEAN LOWMAN
Fun was the order of the day as the SGA sponsored the first annual intramural canoe races on Lake Vann on September 8. Although only 68 students participated, many more stopped to view the frustrating, challenging, and sometimes wet efforts of the competitors.

"I think the crowd enjoyed the races," said SGA President Mike Burke. He added the comment that "the competition was counted as part of the President's Cup battle. Each participant received one point for his dorn for competing. The top three couples in each event also received points for their respective dorms."

The winners were:

Men's Doubles

1. Joe Morgan and Mike Burke
2. Bruce Walbert and Bill Harris
3. Jimmy Hall and Kieth Taylor

Women's Doubles

1. Heather Love and Kelly Keenan
2. Debby Humphrey and Sharon Olden
3. Brenda Jackson and Laurie Carter

Mixed Double's

1. Stuart Williams and Kelly Keenan
2. Bill Gambrell and Heather Love
3. David Fletcher and Eileen Despagna

The official timing and records for the event were kept by Nancy Loy, Keith Dills, and Jim Thomas.

After the competition was completed, Belk Hall and SGA co-sponsored a hot dog roast. Along with the hot dogs, soft drinks were given away to hungry passers by.

Turnovers Mar Opening Loss

(Continued from Page 3)

Garrison was pleased with the two offensive players, but said he was "particularly" pleased with the play of his two sophomore defensive ends Brown and Henderson. The two "bookends" combined for 20 tackles and five sacks. Garrison feels the two were largely responsible for the Braves' tenacious play in the second half. "I thought they played a super ball game."

"Defensively, after the first quarter, we played a heck of a good game," the coach of 22 years said. "In the first quarter I think they were awed by the surroundings of Carter Stadium."

State went on to stretch its margin despite the fired-up Chowan defense in the final period. Block linebacker Rich Learn came in to block a Don Winter punt, and set up a clinching 30 yard drive. State reserve quarterback Tol Avery took a four-yard keeper in for a touchdown after five plays with 12:23 remaining.

Mike Sheppard picked off two Wolfpack passes for the Brave cause, and freshman Arthur Washington snared one.

"We didn't do anything real well," said Garrison. "Our kicking game was terrible and our punting game stunk." "From the positive side we learned a whole lot from this game."

Woody's Comedy Coming

By KATHY FISHER

Woody Allen's "Please Don't Drink The Water" will be presented by the Chowan Players on October 3, 4, and 5. "Any Woody Allen fan will see and hear much of his characteristics in this play," Mrs. Sandra Boyce, play director said. "If you like any of Woody's previous works, you will like this one."

The tryouts have already been held and the cast and production crew have been selected. Mrs. Boyce was very pleased with the turn out. About 25 or more people showed up for the tryouts and all of them were very excited and eager to do well, she said.

"I believe I have a good group of people," commented Mrs. Boyce on the cast selection. Most of the cast has had some high school experience, but not a great deal. Each member has appeared in a play before.

There are three members of the cast who are returning performers. They are Dan White, Laura Askew, and John Sullivan. Dan White who plays Father Drobney in this production was the cemetery salesman in last year's production of "Send Me No Flowers." Laura Askew plays Susan Hollander. She appeared as Judy in "Send Me No Flowers" and as Officer O'Hara in "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Burns is portrayed by John Sullivan. He appeared as the doctor in "Send Me No Flowers."

Other members of the cast are as follows:

- Ambassador Mager - Steve Whittemore
- Kilroy - Bobby Cunningham
- Axel Magee - Rhett Coats
- Marion Hollander - Becky Brasie
- Walter Hollander - Abrey Cuthrell
- Krojack - Kevin Coll
- Chef - Darlene Keene
- Sultan of Bashir - Kevin Wilson
- Sultan's Wife - Penny Jones
- Kasnar - Jameille Aceves
- Count - Wayne Davis

Mrs. Boyce added that "it's too soon to tell, but so far everything is fine." Also new lights are being installed and will be ready in time for the first performance.

The two-act comedy will start at 8 p.m. on Oct. 3, 4, and 5. The admission price will be $1.

$500,000

(Continued from Page 1)

The gymnasium is more than two-thirds completed and is scheduled to be opened in the spring of 1980, according to E. L. Hollowell, campaign national chairman.

The new gymnasium-physical education center will include three full-size basketball courts, two classrooms, weight room, mini-gym, three handball and paddle tennis courts, and an Olympic size swimming pool. The facility will provide 63,000 square feet of space and seating for up to 5,000 people.

Early March Completion Anticipated

By DONNA SWICEGOOD

The gymnasium is approximately two-thirds complete, according to Ben Sutton, Chowan's business manager. "It will be late February or early March before it will be completed," Sutton emphasized.

"We expect to award a contract for bleachers to seat approximately 2,500 people for basketball and to order lockers within the next 30 to 45 days," Sutton explained. Sutton concluded that "hopefully we can get the roof on the back part of the gym before winter sets in. The pool is being excavated now."

Chowan's cheerleaders stike a pose. From left, kneeling, Fredda Powers, Denise Reynolds, Kathy Ferrell, Annette Johnson, standing, Eddie Tomlin and Johnnie Carsten, Big Brave. (Photo by Dennis Loan)

Four Added To Faculty

By DONNA SWICEGOOD

Chowan College opened its 1979-80 academic year with four new faculty members and several new staff members. The four new professors are Mark Wolfe, photography; Dr. R. Allen Fridgen, English; Dan Surface, physical education, and Rinda M. Metz, art. The new staff members are Linda S. Owens, counseling; Diane Wood, counseling; Pamela Hall, secretary, and Michael Posternock, admissions.

The new residence directors are Bennie Bridgewater in East Hall, Charles McCook in Mixon, Mike Britt in West and Scott Colclough in Parker.

The new associate residence directors are Bernie Miller in West and Lynn Carter in Parker.

Returning are 13 faculty members who were involved in graduate study this summer. They are James Dewar, Jr., Syracuse University (study abroad-The Netherlands); Mrs. Phyllis Dewar, University of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Andrea Eason, VPI State University and University of South Alabama; Mrs. Ann Emery, University of Detroit (study abroad-Oxford, England); A. A. Harden, George Mason University; George L. Hazelton, James Madison University.

Also: Mrs. Hattie Jones, University of South Alabama; Hugh Middleton, North Texas State University; Stanley Mitchell, Virginia Commonwealth University; Mrs. Brownie Stancil, East Carolina University; Mrs. Dorothy Wallace, University of South Alabama; Mrs. Katherine Wood, East Carolina University; and Mrs. Janet Collins, Wake Forest University.

Exciting Band Year Planned

By CHUCK MASON

Some "exciting" presentations by the Chowan Stage Band will be presented to the college this year, according to band director Robert Brown.

The band, which does not march because of its lack of students, will consist of 20 students this year, 10 of which are new members. Brown says the students are enthusiastic about the year.

Brown has planned to invite 15 area high school bands to Chowan for a marching and playing festival at homecoming. He also plans to take the school band to Ahsokie for the annual Junior Miss Pageant on Saturday, Oct. 6, 1979.

"We go out and play in high schools and participate in area functions," Brown noted. "It's fun, the band enjoys it and it keeps us in a friendly relation with the community."

Bass, Harris Lead Cheerleader Squad

By BARBARA PARKER

On Wednesday, September 5, seven new cheerleaders were chosen for the 1979-80 academic year. There are four returning cheerleaders this year. They are as follows: Jackie Bass and Pam Harris - co-captains, Denise Martin, and Diane Palmer. The new cheerleaders are Kathy Ferrell, a sophomore, Carol Culp, Annette Johnson, Fredda Powers, and Denise Reynolds, freshmen. This year we also have a male cheerleader, Eddie Tomlin, a sophomore. The Indian Brave is Johnny Carstens, and the Indian Chief is Danny Williams, both sophomores.

The four returning cheerleaders and Danny Williams cheered at NCSU-JV game Saturday, September 1, and at the ECU-JV game Friday, September 7. The full squad cheered at the first home game September 15, when the Braves played Newport News Apprentice.

The cheerleaders are working very hard this year. Pam Harris remarked that they are trying to get students more involved with the games. She said pom-poms will be sold to the students. "We are going to do pom-pom routines. That is when we do a dance-choir to a song," she explained. They will also do stunts at half time. With the student's support, she thinks this ought to be a good year.

FREE BARGAIN BOOK LIST — write Christian Publications, Inc., Dept. CI, P.O. Box 3404, Harrisburg, PA 17105.

VISIT THE STUDENT STORE For All Your Toiletries and Personal Needs

JACK'S STEAK HOUSE

1100 Memorial Drive
Ahoskie

Wednesday Night
College Night

10% Discount
With College I.D.

MOUTHFUL — One of the attention-getting paintings now on display by Ferree Studios of Raleigh in Daniel Hall is "Sandwich", done with airbrush by Roger Brantley. The monthly exhibits are sponsored by the Division of Art.

Gee's Jewelers

108 West Main Street
Murfreesboro, North Carolina
Phone: 919-398-3681

- A large selection of rings and name brand watches.
- A variety of gifts for all occasions.
- Ear piercing.
- Jewelry repairs.
- Watch batteries.
- Certified master watchmaker.

Come To OUR

OCTOBER Valley Fest

SATURDAY
OCT 6, 1979
1PM - 7PM
Roanoke Rapids, N.C.

ENTERTAINMENT BY

The TAMs
OF ATLANTA, GA.

and

Bill Deal and The Rhoadels
OF YA. Beach, Ya.

LOCATION: 1/4 mile behind The Holiday Inn, Roanoke Rapids, N.C.
JUST OFF I-95

Advance Tickets $6.00
AT GATE $9.00
Refreshments Available (Please No Cash)

For Tickets
CALL 919 537-3513
OR WRITE
RVC OFC
Box 619
Roan. Rapids, N.C. 27870