Blood Goal Achieved Once More

By SHARON ALEXANDER

The Red Cross Bloodmobile visit to Chowan College on September 29 was considered a "success" by Linda Owens, director of Student Activities.

Chowan surpassed its 200-pint goal by 35 pints of blood. This was termed a tremendous show of community spirit and caring on the part of this community by Miss Owens.

Circle K, Womens Club of Murfreesboro and student volunteers helped in making the program a success. This was one of the largest single collections of blood in Hertford County in the last five years, missing last years total of 285 pints by 50 pints.

Miss Owens praised the student body for its efforts in the Bloodmobile "I am proud of the fact that the Chowan students cared for a project and not for the assembly and class cut credits which they received."

Deportation Proceedings Beefed Up

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CPS) — Nearly a year after it began its efforts to identify and deport Iranian students who are here illegally, the U.S. Immigration & Naturalization Service (INS) announced recently it is prepared to start deportation proceedings against nearly 12,000 Iranians.

So far, only 432 Iranians have been escorted out of the country. INS spokesman Ver Jarvis says it is uncertain when proceedings against the bulk of the allegedly "out-of-status" Iranians will begin.

Jervis noted that 20 temporary immigration judges are being deputized, but that their priority will be participating in expulsion hearings against some 1700 Cubans.

The round-up of Iranian students was begun by President Carter shortly after the November 4 seizure of the American embassy in Teheran.

Since then, around 59,000 Iranians have voluntarily reported to immigration officials. INS agents flushed out 2443 more students, and now estimate that 8000-10,000 others remain unregistered.

Of that "out-of-status" pool, the INS has charged that 2195 had violated various civil and immigration laws, and ordered them deported.

The most common infraction, Jervis says, is overstaying the term dictated in the visas. Others have been charged with attending school part-time, despite visa regulations that they be full-time students, and with failing to get the required special work permits.

But nearly half as many (2386) have applied for political asylum. None of the applications have been approved so far. The State Department, which holds the applications, refuses all comment about the requests for asylum.

Chowan Show His 5,410th

By BECKY FINNEY

Chowan College was entertained September 24 by a multi-talented personality, Bill Clary, who has been working in show business for twenty-seven years.

Clary's mystic performance at Chowan marked his 5,410th show. In the Wednesday morning assembly Clary presented a preview of his magic, followed by a lecture on hypnosis in the afternoon and a full evening performance in Columns Auditorium.

Clary's various entertainment ranges from playing the banjo and guitar to writing music and books.

When asked what made him successful, Clary replied, "I enjoy entertaining, especially with college students."

WHAT COULD THE ARMY POSSIBLY OFFER A BRIGHT PERSON LIKE YOU?

Drop your guard for a minute. Even though you're in a two-year college right now, there are many aspects of the Army you might find very attractive. Maybe even irresistible. See for yourself.

ROTC SCHOLARSHIPS

If you're thinking of eventually going to a four-year college, it's not too early to start thinking about an ROTC scholarship.

There are 2-year and even 1-year ROTC scholarships available.

They cover tuition, books, and lab fees. Plus $100 a month living allowance. Naturally, they're very competitive. Because besides helping you towards your bachelor's degree, an ROTC scholarship helps you towards the gold bars of an Army Officer. It's worth looking into.

WINGS & A CHOPPER

With two years of college under your belt, you can get preferential consideration for Warrant Officer Flight Training.

If you pass all the tests and qualify, you'll go through 40 weeks of rigorous and valuable training. You'll earn the distinctive bars of a warrant officer and the silver wings of an Army aviator. You'll have at least 175 hours of flight instruction, 40 hours with a flight simulator, 4 weeks night qualification, and enough classroom work in aerodynamics, meteorology and aerial navigation to last a lifetime.

The result is a rewarding, responsible and prestigious position as an Army helicopter pilot.

STRIPES FROM THE START

What you've learned in college has already earned you a promotion in the Army.

It's true. If you join the Army with two years of college, you can start two pay grades higher. Instead of being an E-1 with an empty sleeve, you can come in as E-3 with stripes.

It means about $60 more a month in your paycheck. And a lot more opportunity in the long run. Since you'll be literally wearing your education on your sleeve, your talents won't go unnoticed by your superiors.

And starting out right can really help you make the most of the Army.

A BONUS FOR PART-TIME WORK

You can get a $1,500 bonus just for enlisting in some Army Reserve units. Or up to $2,000 in educational benefits.

You also get paid for your Reserve duty. It comes out to about $1,000 a year for 16 hours a month and two weeks annual training.

And there's a special program that lets you fit your Army Reserve active duty around your school schedule.

It's something to consider. Because even if you went to a two-year college because it was less expensive than a four-year college, you know by now that it still isn't cheap.

A CHANCE TO GO ON WITH COLLEGE

If you're thinking you might even go further with your college education, the Army can help there, too.

A few years in the Army can help you get not only the money for tuition, but also the maturity to use it wisely.

The Army has a program in which money you save for college is matched two-for-one by the government. Then, if you qualify, generous bonuses are added to that.

So 2 years of service can get you up to $7,400 for college, 3 years up to $12,100, and 4 years up to $14,100. In addition, bonuses up to $3,000 are available for certain 4-year enlistments in selected skills.

Add in all the experience and maturity you can get, and you can see how the Army can send you back to college a richer person in more ways than one.

We hope these Army opportunities have intrigued you as well as surprised you.

Because there is indeed a lot the Army can offer a bright person like you.
