

Homecoming 1980

Chowan 20

Ferrum 7

Homecoming Queen Shigeko Wakiyama received congratulations from Co-Captain Amos Twitty after being crowned by President Bruce E. Whitaker whose smile of pleasure actually is exceeded by that of royal escort Mike Arai. (Photo by Todd Dudek)

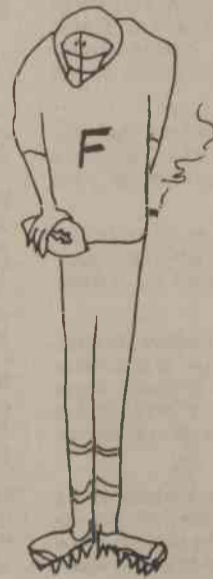

Ferrum football jersey en route to top of stadium flagpole as Brave players celebrate big Homecoming victory. (Photo by Todd Dudek)

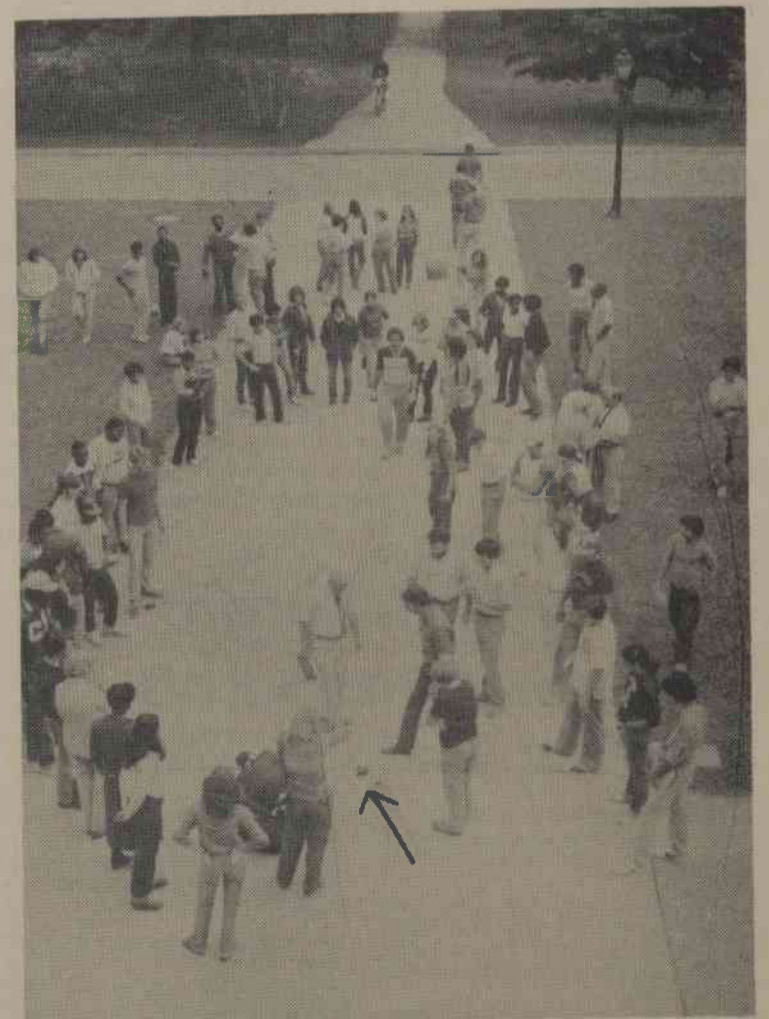

West Hall's banner warning the Ferrum Panthers of their impending defeat was unfurled during the game from atop the field house. On the roof are Sao Vang, the artist (right), and Allen Johnson. Holding the banner at ground level is John LaGesse.

Shocked amazement is portrayed by Queen Shigeko as she hears the announcement of her selection. Her reaction appears to amuse Arai as he raises his hand in joy. (Photo by Doug Miller)

Dr. R. Hargus Taylor is either showing daughter Marcia a new dance step or demonstrating how Keith Myers place kicks during a lull in the Homecoming Dance in Thomas Cafeteria. (Photo by Doug Miller)

"Anderson" crosses finish line in the turtle race for the White House (arrow) under the eagle eye of race promoter Bob Lumpkins. "Reagan" is more than a few lengths back (between the outspread feet of track official Chip Caviness) while "Carter" was left at the post.