AMY WRITING AWARDS
SPONSORED BY THE AMY FOUNDATION

An invitation for writers to communicate biblical truth to a secular audience

The Amy Foundation Writing Awards program is designed to recognize creative, skillful writing that presents in a sensitive, thought-provoking manner the Biblical position on issues affecting the world today.

To be eligible, submitted articles must be published in a secular, non-religious publication.

The opportunity is yours to present Biblical truth as quoted from an accepted and popular edition of the Bible such as The New International Version, The Living Bible.

The King James, or the Revised Standard Version.

In addition to the $10,000 first prize, there are fourteen major cash awards. They include a $5,000 2nd prize, a $3,000 third prize, a $2,000 4th prize, a $1,500 5th prize and 10 prizes of $1,000 each. A total of $31,500 in Writing Awards.

What Do You Want?

By Sarah Davis

WHAT DO YOU WANT? ... a new tee shirt? ... a new cap to shade your eyes during Chowan baseball games? ... a tote bag to carry your books to the beach so you can study while sunning? ... a poster of Phylcia Rashad? ... Paul Newman? ... Dan Marino? ... a buffet dinner at Fred's Pizza?

Then, take time to visit your library.

Chowan students can always find what they need—from the ordinary to the exotic—in Whitaker library, but during National Library Week they can find what they want as well.

Each year the American Library Association designates a week and theme to call attention to the nation's libraries. This year Chowan will again join in the celebration April 5-11.

Chosen as the theme for this year is "Take Time to Read," and the staff of Whitaker Library invites you to take time to know your library and the many services it provides you, the Chowan student.

While in the library, be sure to register for the prizes to be award each day, April 6-10, at 4:00 p.m.

APRIL FOOLS!
APRIL FOOLS!

This is what happens when Security forgets to put on the parking brake. Last Friday afternoon one of the SMOKE SIGNALS photographers got this rare picture of SECURITY'S white escort drifting across Lake Vann. As you can see, the birds didn't really mind their new companion, but, unfortunately, the car was rescued soon afterward.

Waldo's World

By Waldo Tuttle

Look out world. Guess what? Those dang ol' parking problems are going to be fixed real soon. This came about after one student superglued himself to a curb outside of West hall south. Also, another student went completely insane when she tried to figure out which direction to park outside Jenkins dorm. She is recovering well and is now speaking a few complete sentences, nothing over four words. Chowan's administration finally wrote me a letter stating that they realized there is a problem with the parking and are now willing to shell out the cash to have it fixed. I raise a toast to the school for finally planning to have this potentially life threatening parking problem fixed.

Hey, those art students are really fantastic. As you can tell by all the comic strips in this paper, the response was great. It is wonderful how they took time out to make this school and this issue of the Smoke Signals a little more enjoyable, not that the school or the paper is boring or anything.

I often find myself wishing there weren't so many exciting and fun things to do here. The other day I was trying to get some skates over at the student center, and I had to wait until someone got off the crowded skating rink. Gee, that skating area gets a lot of use, I guess that is why they are trying to get the floor recovered. One of the other really fun things to do is going canoeing on the lakes. Yes, the canoes really do float.

Oh, and how about that cafeteria. I heard that Rand-McNalley's Great Food Guide to America ranked Chowan's cafeteria number two in the nation for places to eat. The winner was the Salvation Army free food line in Cleveland, Ohio. The favorite meals at Chowan are the steak sandwiches and the strangely colored oriental stew type dish that is just so pleasing to the eye that you want to ask for the recipe. For those interested, there is no recipe. Don't forget about the service. I mean, all you have to do is ask for alfalfa sprouts and the helpers will gladly bring you a bowl, even if the salad bar isn't open yet. Gee, the cafeteria is a wonderful place to eat.

Another great thing about Chowan is all the rules. The worst one is having visitors of the opposite sex only on certain nights. This rule should be abolished! Fraternization of sexes is a dangerous threat. Where would we be now if the Pope went on a date? Utter chaos, that's where. Then there is the no drinking on campus rule that everyone follows. Sowhat if some people are 21, drinking is the devil's work. Next thing you know these mindless alcoholics will be driving down the middle of Squirrel Park and worse yet, they will end up using harsh drugs like Pepto-Bismol and sniffing rubber cement. What a retched and horrible life.

Oh well, that's about it for this paper. Next time I'll try to write the truth about some of these really stupid and bizarre situations. And maybe, although I doubt it, the Chowan administration will actually write a letter explaining what they plan to do about the parking problem that they have been too blind to recognize. Perhaps the student activities committee will plan some exciting things to do, or the art students will send in some cartoons (Boy, I sure hope so!). Possibly the faculty will stop acting like guards at a prison camp and start treating the students like REAL people. And maybe I'll quit smoking. Ya, right. By the way APRIL FOOLS!
