

Graduates Successful In Business

You might call Tony Johnson and Tim Nelson boy wonders of the business world.

Actually, at the ripe old ages of just-turned-22, they're not boys any more. But the two were just 19 when they went into business, acquiring the PIP Printing franchise in Asheboro.

During the summer, Johnson and Nelson became award-winning businessmen. At the PIP national convention in Nashville over the Fourth of July, they received an award for the highest percentage of growth of all PIP franchises in the Southeast region, which stretches from North Carolina south to Florida and west to Texas.

To that award they added another for four-color process in the category of all franchises 2 years old and under. Their award-winning entry was a business card for the Comfort Zone.

"We were real excited," said Johnson, who says he and Nelson bought the PIP franchise at a good price from the previous owners because, Johnson says, "the store was doing poorly." The two assumed all the company's loans and set out to succeed in business.

The pair came to the business from different routes. Nelson received an A.A. degree in Printing Technology from Chowan College in Mufreesboro. Johnson who also attended Chowan, had worked for three years at a PIP franchise in Burlington, the hometown of both. At the time he left, Johnson had been production manager for a year.

The partners bought the shop three weeks before Nelson graduated from college.

For six months or so they commuted to Asheboro from Burlington. "We'd sleep in the back on the floor," says Johnson. "When we could not stand it, we'd go home and take a shower, spend the night and come back." When they couldn't take traveling between home and office any more, they rented a place in Randleman for a year. Last December the two eliminated the drive altogether by buying a house in Asheboro.

Johnson and Nelson have made a lot of changes in the printing shop since they took over. They have added a second copier, laminating equipment, a bookbinding machine, and electric collators. "We have some of the most sophisticated equipment around," says Johnson.

The company has also added a two-color press and a fax service. "We're going to try to offer 24-hour turnaround time," Johnson says.

The franchise's territory covers all of Randolph County.

The young owners think of their business as filling a need between quick printers and commercial printers. "We can handle almost any business," Johnson says "Word of mouth helps us out a lot. We hope that any time someone needs something quick, PIP comes to mind."

Outward Bound: More Than Just A Trip

Whitewater rafting, mountain climbing, rappelling, rock climbing—how would you like to experience any or all of these adventures and learn something about yourself at the same time?

You can, with an Outward Bound course. Perhaps you have heard of Outward Bound—you, or people you know may even have experienced one of our courses. Over 19,000 men and women participated in the more than 500 courses we offered last year alone.

Because Outward Bound's five schools are located in geographically diverse locations, the courses at each school reflect the personality and character unique to that area. We have schools in Colorado, in Maine, in North Carolina and in Oregon and Minnesota.

"Our courses this year will use the vast majestic wilderness and urban areas of twenty-two states," notes John F. Reynolds, President of Outward Bound.

Traveling miles across mountains, lakes or ocean may mean aching muscles, cold feet and wet bodies, but it also brings mutual respect, shared jokes, beautiful sunrises and the pride of shared achievement.

Facts About Aids, Giving Blood

AIDS is a disease that breaks down the body's system for fighting infection and disease. AIDS can be spread through donated blood and plasma. Blood tests to detect antibody to the AIDS virus (HIV) are very good, but they are not perfect. It is possible for a person in the early stage of infection to have a negative test result. Therefore, people who are at risk for getting AIDS must never give blood or plasma.

You are at risk for getting AIDS and spreading the AIDS virus if:

1. You are a man who has had sex with another man since 1977, even one time.
2. You have ever taken illegal drugs by needle.
3. You are a native of Haiti, Burundi, Kenya, Rwanda, Tanzania, Uganda, or Zaire who entered the United States after 1977.
4. You have AIDS or one of its signs or symptoms.
5. You have ever had a positive test for HIV antibody, showing past exposure to the AIDS virus.
6. You have hemophilia and have received clotting factor concentrates.
7. You are or have been the sex partner of any person described above since 1977.
8. You are a woman or man who is now or has been a prostitute since 1977.
9. You have been the heterosexual sex partner of a male or female prostitute within the last six months.

Along with pride will come a sense of self-confidence and inner satisfaction that will last a lifetime.

"...students are almost certain to discover new things about themselves," explains Mr. Reynolds. "They expect more of themselves, become confident...learn to share, to lead and to follow, and to work together as a group. In safeguarding each other, they form bonds of mutual trust. They discover that many problems can be solved only with the cooperation of all members of a group."

Love Keeps Slipping Away

The time keeps slipping away
As I sit here watching the phone
It hurts knowing you're with someone
And I'm sitting here all alone
I hope you always have fun
And I hope you never cry
But the way you've been treating me
It's time for me to fly
When you tell me a lie
It tears my heart to shreds
Every minute I think about it
Is another minute I want to be dead
I can't stand the thought of losing you
It gives me such a chill
Every car that passes by
Is another tear on my windowsill
You act like you don't want me anymore
You very rarely come by
We never ever go out anymore
Why don't you give it a try
I wish you could see how lonely I am
I wish you could see how blue
I wish you'd respect what I want sometimes
I wish we could start anew.

American Poetry Association Holds Public Contest in June

Poets can now enter a new poetry contest with $11,000.00 in prizes. The Grand Prize is $1,000.00 and the First Prize $500.00. In all, 152 poets will win awards and national publication. The contest, sponsored by the American Poetry Association, is open to the public and entry is free.

"Students are often winners in our contests, and we would like to see more student's poetry" said Robert Nelson, Publisher for the Association. "We want to find undiscovered poets and give them the recognition they deserve. This year our winners will be published and publicized to the utmost of our power."

Poets may enter the contest by sending up to six poems, each no more than 20 lines, name and address on each page, to American

Poetry Association, Dept. CT-22, 250 A Potrero Street, P.O. Box 1803, Santa Cruz, CA 95061-1803. The contest remains open until June 30, to allow students ample time to enter during spring or summer break. Poets who enter early will be invited to another contest with another $1,000.00 Grand Prize.

Each poem is also considered for publication in the American Poetry Anthology, a leading collection of contemporary verse.

During six years of sponsorship the American Poetry Association has run 28 contests and awarded over $112,000 in prizes to 2,850 winning poets.

bound by a finding of the Judiciary Committee that the student is not guilty of a violation of College policy.

31. The meeting of the Dean of Students and the Judiciary Committee and all discussions and deliberations at that meeting shall be tape recorded subject to the other provisions of this policy regarding tape recordings of proceedings.

32. (a) After meeting with the Judiciary Committee, the Dean of Students will notify the affected student as quickly as possible in writing of the actual punishment which is being imposed upon that student. (b) The written notice will advise the affected student whether the actual punishment being imposed is the punishment recommended by the Judiciary Committee, or if it is an altered punishment being imposed by the Dean of Students. (c) Except in the case of a finding that the affected student's conduct is regarded as undesirable, the notice will advise the affected student of the reasons why the penalty recommended by the Judiciary Committee was altered by the Dean of Students. (d) If the Dean of Students determines that the affected student's conduct is regarded as undesirable, and that student is being excluded from the College for that undesirable conduct, then the written notice provided for herein does not have to specify any further reason for excluding the student from the College.

33. (a) A student has the right to appeal to the President of the College any decision rendered against that student by the Dean of Students. (b) A student has the right to appeal to the President of the College any penalty recommended by the Judiciary Committee and upheld by the Dean of Students. (c) A student has the right to appeal to the President of the College any penalty imposed upon that student by the Dean of Students.

34. (a) Immediately upon an appeal to the President of the College, the Dean of Students will provide the President with the full record of all proceedings before the Judiciary Committee, including the meeting between the Dean of Students and the Judiciary Committee if the Dean of Students proposed to alter or altered the penalty recommended by the Judiciary Committee. (b) If the record required by Item 34a does not contain all of the reasons for any of the decisions made by Dean of Students, then he will immediately supplement the record with a written report to the President of the College setting forth in detail all of his reasons which are not contained in the record.

35. The President of the College and his staff will give serious and conscientious consideration to every appeal.

36. The President of the College will reverse any decision or penalty determined to be arbitrary, unreasonable, or in bad faith.

Article V. Amendment Procedure

SECTION 1.

(This is not a change but this sentence was omitted from the printing of the SGA Constitution in the 1988-1989 Student Handbook.)

B. By a two-thirds vote of the Legislature of the Student Legislature after being tabled for one week.

SECTION 3.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution must be approved by a majority of the voting student body and the faculty and staff.

SECTION 4.

Amendments to the constitution shall be incorporated by the methods of deletion and/or substitution. Amendments which are additive shall be placed in additional sections or paragraphs, in the article to which they pertain.

SECTION 5.

Amendments to the Constitution shall go into effect upon the signature of the President of the S.G.A. and the President of the College.

Article VI. By-Laws

By-Laws to the Constitution shall become valid after the motion has been tabled for two weeks and has been approved by a two-thirds majority of the Student Legislature and the President of the College.

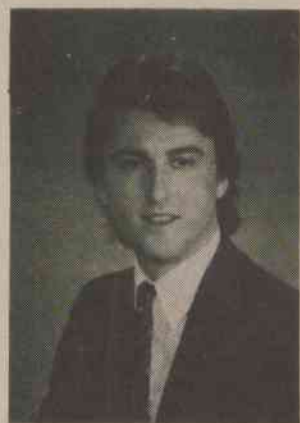

Article VII. Ratification

SECTION 1.

This Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the voting student body, faculty and staff. The ratification of this Constitution shall revoke all previous constitutions of the Student Government Association.

SECTION 2.

This Constitution shall go into effect immediately upon its ratification by the Student Body of Chowan College and approved by the President of the Student Government Association and the President of the College.
