

What's up with that?

Question: What is the best gift that you have ever given or received?

"The best gift I received was October 3, 1994 -- the day that I was married to my wife Donna."
—Lt. Carl Douglas
Police and Public Safety Officer

"The best gift I have ever received is the gift of being in a position to help someone else."
—Zelfhia Hinnant-Jones
Office of Academic Affairs

"The best gift that I have ever received (and am still receiving) is the plethora of acorns on the Methodist College campus!!"
—Joe Squirrel
The Nutty Professor

"I think the best gift that I've offered to students is friendship, support, guidance . . . to be there for them. The best gift a student can give me is to show respect and growth as a person -- to grow from a young person to a young adult."
—Liauna Jordon
Office Manager, Student Life

"The best gift I will receive is having my whole family together this Christmas. The best gift I've given is sending boxes of toys for the unfortunate children in other parts of the world."
—Emily Bilog
Evening College Secretary

"Let's see. Hmmm. Meow Mix, Pounce, Friskies, mice, a squirrel or two, and a delectible blue jay would probably be the best gifts that I have ever received."
—Thomas J. Mullen, Junior
Professor of Ornithology

"The best gift I've ever received is the gift of my grandsons. I have two; one is seven and the other is almost two. They mean the world to me."
—Ann White
Payroll Specialist & Methodist Student
