

Entertainment

Road Trip

"Look Charlie Brown, it's the great pumpkin!"

Photo by Anne Zahran

"BAAA!"

Photo by Anne Zahran

North Carolina apples at the fair.

Photo by Robin Warrington

N.C. State Fair

Staff Writer
Anne Zahran

A good time was had by all at the North Carolina State Fair in Raleigh on October 13-22. The fair's many attractions included award-winning livestock, produce, music, rides, and of course, food! There were blue ribbon pies to see, N.C. autumn apples to eat, and a large enough variety of sweets and fried treats to satisfy even the pickiest set of tastebuds. For those daring food connoisseurs, there were even fried candy bars, a somewhat new trend.

For those people who came to the Fair to actually see something, not just stuff themselves and ride the wild rides, there was plenty to take advantage of. There were exhibits of practically every type of animal imaginable, from brown bears to white tigers to N.C.'s finest pigs, goats, and cows. There was also a chance to work with new computers, learn about the Presidential candidates, and the opportunity to see our state's biggest pumpkin! (855 lbs!). Finally, for everyone who came to the Fair to have a really good time, there were musical acts for everyone, from 70's rock group War to country singer Lila McCann.

The ferris wheel shining brightly at night.

Photo by Robin Warrington

Teddy bear? I think not!

Photo by Anne Zahran

Here pig, pig, suee!

Photo by Anne Zahran

Everyone lines up to see the statue.

Photo by Anne Zahran

Look for the next
staff road trip
the North Carolina
Renaissance Festival
in Charlotte!
We'll See You There!

It's a duck!

Photo by Robin Warrington