

in Mr. Holmes' heart to the next best person.

Frances Henderson bestows her dramatic ability upon Gladys Delphy.

Rosa Hall leaves her ability to do things speedily to Elizabeth Vincent.

Vanya Cuffee leaves her artistic ability to Harriet Washington.

Maycie Copeland wills a portion of her "gift of gab" to Margaret Mack.

John Henry leaves his carefree manner to Lloyd Allen.

Perce Harris bestows his musical talent upon Peter White.

Mary Boley hereby bequeaths the opportunity to step from one office position to another to Vivian Cook.

Bette Banner wills her place in the choir to Doris Holloway.

Nannie Farrar leaves her ability to dress conservatively to Marcella Williams.

Richard Horsley hereby bequeaths his annual fight to D. Wendell Jones. Rose Huggins leaves her captivating personality to Caroline Stone.

Melvin McDowell wills his ability to analyze situations to Oliver Morse.

Eldon George McLean bestows his ability to rephrase lines in any play to Charles Atkins.

Randolph McAlpine leaves his ability to have breakfast after the teachers to anyone who can't get up on time.

Ada Simpkins bequeaths her position as Delaney Building official bell ringer to Dorothy Racks.

Spencer Albury leaves her position in the dining hall to Thelma Gary.

Gilbert Wilson bequeaths his passiveness to Thomas Bemby.

Daniel Summers wills a path to the Nurses' home to Harry Johnson and the boys.

Audrey Gibson leaves her grand manner to Alice Parker.

Ellen Williams leaves her love for swing music to Velma McEwen.

Vernay Battle bequeaths her stability to Hulda Williams.

John Speight Simpkins bestows his rich bass voice to Richard Henderson.

Prettlophine Simmons wills her pleasant disposition to Miriam Roberts.

Robert Tillman leaves his "glamour boy" manner to Charles Johnson.

William Jackson leaves his ability to get to class just before the dismissal bell rings to anyone who takes college as lightly as he does.

Ellis Johnson hereby bequeaths his annual love rounds to any six fellows who can manage them.

Article 6: Section 1:

We hereby charge to the Junior Class the task of executing our last will and testament. In witness thereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seal, this eventful day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and forty.

The Senior Class of 1940

M. Spencer Albury, Testator

Randolph McAlpine, Testator

Witnesses:

Ada Simpkins

Jeremiah Heartley