

Swimming Is Favorite Sport As Summer Weather Arrives

"Don't you dare throw me in, Kirk!"

"Hey, look at Zane go off the diving board."

"If you get wet first, you'll blister better."

"Tiny, what happened to your bathing suit?"

"Boy, this water's cold."

With the arrival of warm weather, Wesleyan students have been spending many enjoyable days swimming.

Although there is no pool on campus, they have been given permission by the manager of Hal Orr's to use the motel pool.

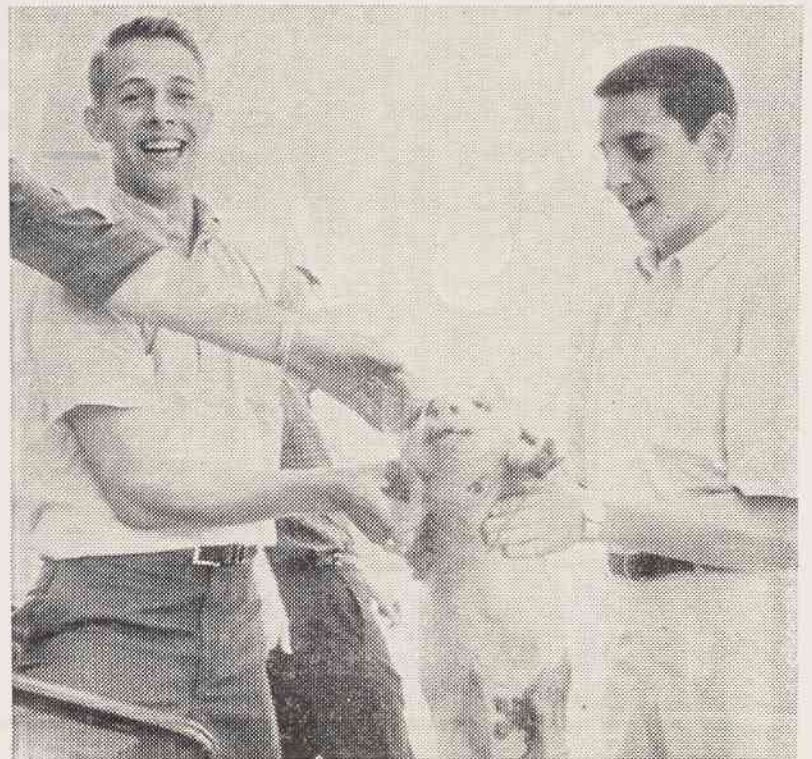

Carloads of students frequent the pool almost every pretty day.

For the privilege of swimming in the pool, they help keep it clean by diving for pebbles in the bottom and cleaning the sides with cleanser.

Anyone may use the pool privileges.

McADOO . . . COULD YOU BE OUR MASCOT?

Mrs. Macadoo Is Visitor On Campus

The newest member of the college family is Mrs. Macadoo, campus visitor who recently spent an interesting evening in the first floor bathroom of the Girls Dorm. Her appearance caused quite a bit of excitement.

executed it with the greatest of skill.

Speaking of mascots, Mrs. Macadoo seems like a likely subject.

Can you imagine . . . Jo Lynn Faulkner chasing this pig down the hall at 6:00 in the morning?

Or Gay Finley, her roommate, climbing on her dresser in fright?

Or Kay Hobbs thinking she was seeing things and then being awfully relieved to discover that the pig was real and not a figment of her imagination?

And it really happened at Wesleyan. Several industrious men students dreamed the prank up and
