

Comptroller Is Visiting In Hawaii

Mr. Jasper Smith, Comptroller of the college, is now on his way to Hawaii to attend the Mission Conference as representative from Wesleyan. He left Feb. 9, and is not expected to return for several weeks. Before attending the Mission Conference, Mr. Smith plans to be present at the meeting of South Eastern Jurisdictional Council in Memphis, Tenn.

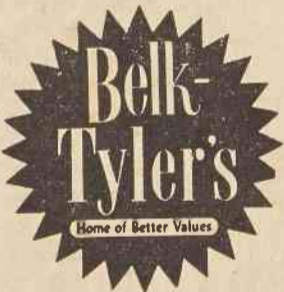

The Mission Conference is a week-long meeting to debate the feasibility of establishing a protestant nondenominational college in Hawaii. The proposed college will be sponsored by all of the participating denominations if it becomes a reality.

At present there are several Catholic colleges in Hawaii in addition to the University of Hawaii. Mr. Smith also plans to review recent mission activities of the Methodists in Hawaii during his stay there.

Joyner's Victorious In Two Tilts, Loses Two

Stallings' well-balanced scoring attack was the cause of the Joyner's defeat on Jan. 24. The Joyner's team was able to keep pace during the first half, with Stallings ahead only one point at halftime.

During the second half, Stallings steadily increased its lead. Midway in the second half it led by 12 points. Joyner's decreased this lead by six points, but to no avail. The final score was 54-45 in favor of Stallings.

Defeats Bank

With only five boys to play, the Joyner's team beat Peoples Bank, 50-40, on Jan. 28. Peoples Bank led by 6 points in the first half, and the game remained close through the first three quarters. Then the roof fell in on the Banker's team. Tom Dew made a hook shot and a foul shot while Mike Pratt added two foul shots without allowing Peoples a single point.

Mike Pratt led the attack with 20 points. Tom Dew contributed 11 points, Lloyd Nelson made 10, and John Edgerton played for 8. Before this game Al Rexroad had seen limited action, but he played a brilliant floor game against Peoples by holding his man to only one point.

Joyner's Loses

Clack's Bill Beacham was a one-man wrecking crew in handling Joyner's a 59-44 defeat on Jan. 30. Beacham scored 25 points and grabbed numerous rebounds during the game. The first half score was in favor of Clacks, 26-20, and poor shooting and loose defense was the main reason for Joyner's final defeat. Lloyd Nelson led the team with 14 points and 9 rebounds. The only other man in double figures for the Joyner's team was John Edgerton with 10 points.

Whitakers Bows

Sharpening up for the tournament, the Joyner's team rolled to a 64-37 victory over Whitakers on Feb. 4. The Joyner's fast-break was working to perfection. They also had a fine balanced scoring attack. Lloyd Nelson led the attack with 20 points, and John Edgerton had 16. Following their leads, Bill Robertson had 10 points, and Tom Dew also made 10.

Baseball-Tennis Games Are Set

Dr. Raymond Bauer has announced a tentative schedule for Wesleyan College tennis and baseball games during the 1963 season. Wesleyan will play approximately ten tennis matches with St. Andrews, Campbell, Chowan, and several other colleges. The team's first tennis match is April 27 with St. Andrews.

The baseball schedule is not definite yet, but the team will play between 14 and 16 games. The first game is March 21 with Pembroke and will be played here. Negotiations are under way for New Bedford Institute of New Bedford, Mass., to travel to Wesleyan for two baseball games. Dr. Bauer has set Feb. 8 as the beginning practice date for pitchers and catchers, and the entire squad is to report on Feb. 18.

A complete schedule of baseball games and tennis matches will be published as soon as final details are completed.
