

The Wesleyan Decree

VOL. 4, NO. 4

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., NOV. 6, 1963

BI-WEEKLY—$2.00 YEARLY

ROBERT STEPHENS listens to Joan Lamberth debate in favor of New Bill.

Suspension Now Result Of Overcuts In Chapel

A new policy concerning Chapel cuts has been established from a recommendation proposed by the Chapel Committee. As stated in the Chapel Committee's minutes, the policy is as follows:

"It was recommended that two unexplained Chapel absences be the maximum number permitted. For a third unexplained Chapel absence, the student will be suspended for the following term and will be eligible to return to Wesleyan the semester following his suspension. In the case of a fourth unexplained absence the student will be summarily suspended."

Each Monday following the previous Thursday, a list of absentees will be posted. After two absences, the student will be sent a note by the Director of Student Life asking that these absences be excused. Excused absences are those which constitute an excuse from the nurse in case of illness, or explanation by the participants in case of automobile trouble, etc.

Those persons having excessive cuts prior to Chapel, November 7, 1963, will be considered to have had their two excused cuts, and any further cuts, unless excused will be handled in the above manner. Those who have taken two cuts need not consider them from this point on, those who have overcut, but not grossly will have a note placed in their permanent file to that effect.

First Cheering Squad Chosen By Wesleyan

On Friday, November 1, Wesleyan's first cheering squad was chosen by 15 judges.

The conception of a cheering squad arose through the Faculty Student Life and Services Committee and was realized by the Athletic Commission. Mike Pratt and David Reeves organized the plans and introduced them to the student body during assembly.

The original idea was to have three men and four women, but due to the leak of interest among men, only women students participated.

Those who competed and made the squad are Judy Addison, a sophomore, and secretary of her class. Both last year and this year she has been active in SGA work.

Linda Law, a blond haired, blue-eyed freshman, was also chosen.

Lynn Austin and Suzanne Barwick, both freshman, are active in student affairs. Both Lynn and Suzanne are members of the Decree staff, and Suzanne is also a member of the Social Commission.

(Continued on page 6)

Student Govt. Senate At Work; 'Board Of Review' Is Proposed

At the October 28 meeting of the Senate, Vice President Robert Stephens presided in the absence of John Hines, President.

In the reports from the committee, the chairman of the grievance committee, Bill Hartley reported a grievance on the way food was being served in the cafeteria. He reported that he received a letter from Miss Hailey concerning this situation. However, he reported that part of the letter contained a student grievance submitted to the committee. He said, "In other words, if everything in the letter is attributed to the grievance committee in terms of a student grievance, it's wrong and a little unclear." He ended by saying that he will report at a later Senate meeting on the conclusion of the issue.

Next, Vice President Robert Stephens read the old and new proposed bill concerning the Board of Review and moved for the new bills approval. They are as follows:

Old Bill

I. A Board of Review shall be set up as a Senate Committee.

II. The Board's purposes shall be:

A. To review the organization and charters of all non-academic organizations and to report to the Senate for approval.

B. To report twice yearly to the Senate on the activities of the organizations as to their consistency of purpose or a motion to reject the organization.

C. That the Board have reports of each organization at the two stated times set by the Board during each year.

Proposed New Bill

I. A Board of Review shall be set up as a standing committee responsible to the Senate of the SGA.

II. The Board's purposes shall be:

A. To be the initiating agency for the chartering of all student organizations, academic and non-academic.

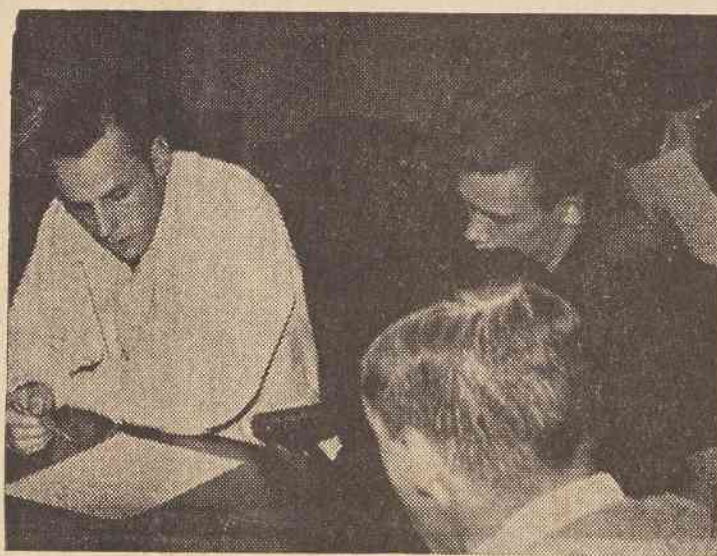

B. To make recommendations for the approval or disapproval of organizations requesting formation. If the Board approves formal recognition of the proposed organization, the Chairman of the Board of Review shall present this report at the next Senate meeting and move for Senate approval.

C. That if the Senate acts upon the Board's recommendation, the Chairman of the Board of Review shall be responsible to present the recommendation to the Faculty Student Life and Services Committee.

D. To report to the Senate twice yearly, namely, the second week in November and the second week in March, on all organizations as to their consistency of activities with their stated purposes. If the organization fails to fulfill its stated purposes, the Board of Review shall have the power to recommend to the Senate that said organization shall no longer be recognized and therefore shall cease to exist.

E. That the Chairman of the Board of Review be an invited guest of the Faculty Student Life and Services

(Continued on page 6)

GARY GARLOW claims new bill is "too wordy" and said we have "no business dealing with academic affairs."

For 1964-65

Calendar Is Revealed

On October 30, 1963, the Faculty and Administrative Council met and approved the calendar for the year 1964-65. It follows:

Summer Session

June 14—Residence halls open (2 pm); June 15—Registration for Summer Session (1-5 pm); June 16—Classes begin; July 24—Last day of classes; July 27-28 Final Examinations.

College Preparatory

June 14—Residence halls open for first class (2 pm); June 15—Preparatory testing; June 16-July 10—First Session; July 12—Residence halls open for second class; July 13—Preparatory testing; July 14—August 7 Second Session.

Fall Semester

September 8—New faculty orientation; September 9-14—Faculty workshop and retreat; September 16—Residence halls open (2 pm); September 17—All new students report; September 17-19—Orientation and Testing; September 18—President's Reception; September 20—Opening Worship Convocation (4 pm); September 21-22 Registration; September 23—First day of Classes, Late registration fee applies; October 27—Founders' Day Convocation (10:30 am) Semi-annual meeting of the Board of Trustees (1:30 pm).

November 9-13 Mid-term examinations; November 25—Thanksgiving Holidays begin (4 pm); November 30—Classes resume; December 8-11—Pre-registration for Spring Semester; December 8—Sophomore Proficiency Examinations; December 17—College Community Christmas Banquet; December 18—Christmas holidays begin (4 pm).

1965

January 4—Classes resume; January 9-10—Scholarship exams and weekend visits; January 25-29—Fall semester examinations.

Spring Semester

February 3—Registration for Spring Semester; February 4—Classes begin; February 13-14—Scholarship exams and weekend visits; (Continued on page 6)

MARILYN SHEPHERD

LOIS LAMB DIN

"NOTHING WRONG with New Bill," says Guy Rouse, siding against Garlow in slightly heated debates.