

Wesleyan Cops Third Place

Hines Voted Most Valuable Player

Bob Hines has lead Wesleyan to a third place in the D.I.A.C. tournament. His outstanding point average of 25 and his rebounding of 17 per game led Wesleyan to an upset victory over Charleston and nearly into the finals. However, we were edged out by a 4 point win by Lynchburg College and had to settle for third place. This was accomplished by defeating St. Andrews College, 71-66

The tournament opened with an overwhelming victory by St. Andrews over Methodist, which placed our notorious rival in a secure sixth place. In the second game, Wesleyan issued a surprising defeat over the College of Charleston by a narrow final score of 64-62. Wesleyan opened a wide margin early in the game, with a 17-5 lead, but Charleston battled back to a close this gap within a few points and took a 2 point lead twice: in the closing minutes.

On the second night, Wesleyan was narrowly defeated, 81-77, by Lynchburg College who were the eventual tournament champions. The Bishops held Lynchburg's big scorer Wayne Proffit to 26 points. He scored 45 points in the championship game against Charlotte College the final night. It seemed someone put a lid on the Bishops basket the first 10 minutes of the game but then the team loosened up and made good their nickname, "The Battling Bishops" but were unable to go in front and Lynchburg froze the ball.

In the other second-round game Charlotte College beat St. Andrews by 18 points. This resulted in Charlotte College playing Lynchburg College for the Championship and St. Andrews playing Wesleyan in the consolation game.

In the consolation game Wesleyan defeated St. Andrews by 5 points, 71-66. Don Hines held St. Andrews star Benny Brockwell to 17 points while scoring 30 points himself.

Despite the close half-time score Lynchburg defeated Charlotte going away by a margin of 16 points, 77-61, in the championship game.

It appears that this tournament is a foreshadow of things to come for it points to a great season next year for the Bishops who have worked so hard and have finally achieved outstanding results as a team and in the person of Don Hines.

Isn't it a shame that the attendance of Wesleyan students was so poor and that the cooperation with the school press was lacking greatly! It would seem to me that in order to obtain good publicity, cooperation with the news media is imperative.

Opportunities are now available for students to participate in different aspects of the planning and presentation of the Symposium. Any person wishing to do so should contact Dale Ramey, president of the Psychology Club.

Dear Mom and Dad—
Everything is fine here.
Had a mid-term this week,
and I think I made it.
The cookies came through in great shape.
By the way, I'm very low on money. Could you, that is, a little something... Thanks.
Love,
Henry
