

HAYWORTH

WOOLEN

Uncle Sam has beckoned to Bill Hayworth of the finishing room in plant one. Bill, who has seen only six birthdays (he was born February 29, 1924), almost made the draft without being called. He would have been over draft age soon. Bill has been employed since April 1947.

James M. Woollen of plant seven has had a most busy summer. He graduated from N. C. State College in June with a major in Textiles. He was employed by Adams-Millis upon graduation. Then August 7 he married Miss Sarah Warren of Wilmington. On August 17 he is to report to Fort Benning, Georgia for a tour of duty in the Army. Jim was a member of the ROTC at State and holds a 2nd Lt. Commission.

Ronald Staton, knitter of plant one, enlisted in the Navy July 30. Ronald has been employed since July 1, 1952.

Cody Martin, knitter at plant two, has enlisted in the Air Force. Cody has been employed at plant two for 11 years.

Bobby Freeman, plant one boarder, entered service with the Army.

Billy Campbell of plant four has entered the U. S. Army. Billy has been knitting since October 1952.

Bobby Landreth, plant two knitter, has joined the Air Force. He's been at Plant #2 since August 2, 1953.

LEONARD WHITEHEAD

Carlton Leonard has returned to his knitting job in plant one after two years with the 60th Anti-Aircraft Artillery in England.

Leonard is married and he has one child. He plans to attend High Point College while working on the second shift.

Joseph Whitehead returned on June 26, 1954 after receiving his discharge on June 16. He had been away almost two years, having entered service July 14, 1952. Joe had his basic training at Camp Pickett, Virginia, was assigned to Cadre duty there, then was transferred to Fort Meade, Maryland.

Mr. Whitehead was employed as a knitter in Plant #1 in September 1951 and was a Banner fixer when drafted.

Joe is single, attended Thomasville High School, and lives at 110 Jewel St. in Thomasville.

WELCOME HOME!

Junior Johnson, now in the Navy, was a recent visitor to the Boarding Department of Plant One.

To Virginia Thompson, who lost her mother, Lucille Hodgins, her father, and Margie Spencer, her brother, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. All these girls are Plant #1 employees.
