

CLAUDIA LAMBE IS RETIRED WITH 46 YEARS SERVICE

Miss Claudia Lambe, who saw the main office grow from an office force of four to the present force of 60 is retiring with 46 years continuous service with Adams-Millis. Her request for retirement has been approved by the Retirement Committee of our Profit Sharing Plan. She will receive her Profit Sharing Plan benefits in lump payments.

Miss Lambe, a native of Jamestown, took a business course while working as forelady for the High Point Pants Company. Upon completion of her course in 1908, Claudia was employed in the office of the High Point Hosiery Mill as the only general office worker. High Point Hosiery Mill was merged with other interests to form Adams - Millis Corporation in 1928. After about one month of general office work, Miss Claudia was placed in the order department, the position she held until her retirement.

An ardent baseball fan, Miss Lambe rarely missed a Hi-Toms home game. She was the first to purchase her season ticket each year. Many in the office said you never had to read the papers in the morning to see how the Hi-Toms came out the previous night... you just looked for the expression on Miss Lambe's face when she came to work.

A constant companion of Claudia is her non-pedigreed cat, Rassie. Rassie adopted Claudia about three years ago and found a welcome home.

Upon her retirement, Miss Lambe was presented a television set by the office employees.

Advised to relax and take life easy after a brief hospitalization, she still is able to attend Hi-Toms games!

Well, the best of friends must part when the time comes, even though it causes sadness of heart. I will miss all my friends and will think of you often.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation to Adams-Millis for the wonderful financial help to me, through my insurance, etc., during my recent illness, to say nothing of the many kind deeds shown me in so many other ways. I just have not the words to express all I feel.

Adams-Millis are the best people in the world, and Mr. J. E. Millis the best man. I ought to know after 46 years!

I want to add a word for my friends who I am so sad to leave -- the Office, Sample Dept., the Store, all the Shipping Rooms, the Press, Mr. Hutton, Mr. Scruggs, the Machine Shop -- such friends of long-standing.

Stand by Adams-Millis, they are the best!

Sincerely,

Claudia V. Lambe
