C. R. WOOD RETIRES

C. R. Wood, superintendent of Plant #3, has retired pursuant to the closing of the plant. He had been in charge of Plant #3 since 1942.

Continuously employed since July of 1928, Mr. Wood worked first in the Piedmont Looping Room. In 1932, he was promoted to supervisor of the old High Point Knitting Mill. He was transferred to the Pointer, Plant #2, in 1934.

Looking back over his 28 years of employment here, Mr. Wood noted that our company has made great progress in our machinery and products. "Our management has always kept up with modern methods and has been a leader in new patterns and designs. This aggressiveness has maintained our good position in the hosiery field."

Charlie Wood has lived in High Point since he was a small child. He received his education in the High Point City Schools. He is a member of Calvary Methodist Church, a Mason, and a member of the Junior Order.

C. R. Wood has always been willing to lend a helping hand. Ever present with a friendly, sympathetic understanding, he is highly respected by those with whom he worked. He had worked for the Stehli Silk Mills and High Point Underwear prior to coming to Adams-Millis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood live at 805 E. Green Street. They have four daughters: Mrs. Frankie Charles of Yadkinville, N. C.; and Mrs. Ruth Crowson, Mrs. L. M. Walker and Miss Sarah Ellen Wood, all of High Point.
