

SERVICEMAN RETURNS

James M. Woollen returned to work
on May 21, 1956, after serving for approximately 20
months in the U. S.
Army.

Jim entered the Infantry in August, 1954, as a 2nd Lieutenant, received his basic training at Fort Benning, Georgia, and was then stationed at Fort Jackson as an instructor in Mortars for the duration of his service.

After entering service, Jim married Sarah Warren of Wilmington, North Carolina, and is now the proud father of a year-old son, James Millikan, Jr.
He and his family reside at 601-A Chestnut Street.

Woollen will work out of the office of H. G. Bell, Vice President in Charge of Manufacturing.

* * * * *

TWO ENTER SERVICE

Two employees of Adams-Millis Corporation entered the U. S. Armed Forces during the month of April.

Bruce B. Crabtree, knitter of Plant
#1, entered the Marines on April 20,
1956. He has been employed by Adams-Millis Corporation since November of 1955.

Also entering the Marine Corps was James J. Loy, boarder of Plant #4.
James had been with Adams-Millis for approximately 10 months before entering service on April 16, 1956.

* * * * *

The golden age of parenthood
Is when the children are Too old for baby sitters, but Too young to drive the car.

TRANSFER ANNOUNCED

Willis Harris
has been transferred from the Machine Accounting Department to the position of assistant to H. O. Williams.

Harris will assist Mr. Williams in the details of his office. His duties will include the study and development of systems and procedure work.

Consulting engineers have recommended more attention to our systems and procedures as a means to increased economy.

Willis Harris is already familiar with systems and procedures of Adams-Millis Corporation. He has been employed in our Machine Accounting Department since his discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps in 1949. Much of his time here has been spent in the development and application of our present systems and procedures.

A native of Thomasville, Harris graduated from High Point High School in 1946. He volunteered for the Marine Corps in September of 1946. After his boot training at Parris Island, he was assigned to North Island Marine Base off the coast of San Diego. He was subsequently transferred to El Toro, California, to Personnel Accounting where he received his initial training in Machine Accounting.

Harris is married and has a two-year-old daughter, Ann. Mrs. Harris, prior to her marriage, was Alese Jones.
Their marriage was the culmination of an office romance. Mrs. Harris was also employed in our Machine Accounting Department. They live at 606 East Farriss Avenue and are members of Rankin Memorial Church.

Willis is a member of the High Point Toastmasters Club. He is secretary of the Piedmont Chapter of the National Machine Accountants' Association.