

NEWS AROUND THE PLANTS

PLANT NO. 1

Employees of the Knitting Department express their sympathy to Clarence Sink in the death of his father, George Free Sink, on April 26, 1956.

A daughter, Terri Lee Warren, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Warren on April 26, 1956. The mother, Sudie Sells Warren, is a timekeeper in the Knitting Department.

Electa Apple, Looping Department, recently visited her daughter in Akron, Ohio. While there, she and her daughter flew to Pittsburgh for the showing of the cinerama movie, "The Seven Wonders of the Ancient World." Electa was particularly impressed by the Leaning Tower of Pisa, St. Peter's of Rome, the East African Volcano and the Hanging Gardens of Babylon. On her return trip home, Electa visited her son in Charleston, West Virginia.

Congratulations and best wishes to Sarah Loggins and Jimmy Rayle who were married on April 22, in Chesterfield, South Carolina. Sarah is employed in the Pairing Department.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mary Clodfelter in the tragic loss of her daughter, Shelby, on May 13, 1956. Mary is employed in the Looping Department.

Also, we extend our sympathy to Linnie Mae Spratt in the death of her father, J. F. Spratt, on April 20; and to Myrtle Strickland in the loss of her brother, Lance Maynard. Both Lennie Mae and Myrtle are loopers.

Lloyd Cody Martin, Knitting Department, who entered service in July of 1954, recently graduated from the 82nd Airborne Division Jumpmaster School at Fort Bragg, N. C. The two-week school included three parachute jumps and training in the technique of dropping heavy equipment. These jumps make a total of 29 for Specialist 3/c Martin. A member of the Division's Signal Company, he is a veteran of World War II. He has served in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater in the 11th Airborne Division. Martin is the son of Mrs. Ina Martin, 210 Barker Street, and a brother of Margye Martin, timekeeper in the Knitting Department.

We extend our sympathy to H. C. Sisk, Shipping Department, in the loss of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Tucker of Pilot Mountain, N. C.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scott! They have a new daughter, Pamela, born on April 16, 1956. Richard is employed in the Knitting Department.

Also, congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Laster on the birth of a daughter, Beverly Lynn, born April 19. Gladys, the mother, is a knitter.
