

Pictured above are employees of the Seaming Department of Plant #8. Front row, left to right: Kathryn Green, Hazel Henderson, Juanita Wilson, Nannie Sue Skipper, Evelyn Ramsey, Correne Blackwell, Jessie Griffin and Kathleen Panther. Second row, left to right: Pearl Layne, Marie Ormand, Bessie Whitesides, Helen Spurlin, Margaret Wilson, Gertie McKee, Jessie Bishop, seamer teacher, and Myrtle Horton. Third row, left to right: Mary Blackwell, Agnes Jolley, Margie Hudgins, Correne Gosnell, Mary, Lindsey Mildred Hill, Ellen Parker, Bessie Pittman, Edith Case and Oma Thompson. Fourth row, left to right: Gloria Garrett, Katherine Garrett, Olvie Campbell Nell Gosnell, Jeanette Wofford, Louise Prewette, James Griffin, foreman, Ruth Kuykendall and Ruby Gilbert, forelady.

* * * * *

No other people in all history have made such rapid and substantial progress as we Americans working with the enterprise system - the profit and loss system. The pattern for progress in this country has been: fair profits for more investment in better tools for greater production in less time for higher living standards.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith announce the birth of a daughter, Beverly Lynn, on September 22. Mary, the mother, is a plant seven pairer.

