

visited at Jonesville, S. C. They also went to Chimney Rock.

Mary Peterson spent some time with her brother in Hamlet, N. C.

Virginia Thompson spent a week at Roanoke, Virginia.

Doris Clark entertained company from Marion, Indiana--Dr. and Mrs. B. H. Phaup.

Ruth Ross and family spent some time in South Carolina and at the Shingler Hollow Camp Meeting.

Azzilee Lax and her sister spent a week at Ocean View; they also visited in Williamsburg and Norfolk, Virginia.

Ozelle Dawkins and her sister enjoyed the Grand Ole Opry and the Upper Room Chapel at Nashville, Tennessee.

Knitting Department:

Nadine Clark and family visited her parents in Ohio.

H. G. Whittington went to Ocean City, Maryland, and on into Delaware.

Viola Lineberry and her family went to Nashville, Tennessee, and saw the Grand Ole Opry.

Elizabeth Brown spent her vacation with a sister in Tocoa, Georgia.

Roy Rouse visited a brother in Washington, D. C.

Betty Elswick spent some time with relatives and friends in West Virginia.

Frances Hundley visited a brother in Washington, D. C.

Joseph Fairley visited relatives in Maxton, N. C.

Fay Cookston spent her vacation with her family in Bridgeport, Alabama.

Mary Ainsley spent some time with her family in Asheville, N. C.

Barbara Pratt visited her family in Wadesboro, N. C.

Geneva Hassell went to see relatives in South Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia.

Robert Yates spent his vacation in Galax, Virginia, Huntsville, Alabama, and western North Carolina.

Mary Rakestraw went to see her daughter in Charleston, S. C.

Edward Tilson went home to Pulaski, Virginia.

Frances Turney visited in Black Mountain, N. C.

Velma Irby visited relatives in Cleveland, Ohio.

Myra McCollum spent her vacation with her family in Bennettsville, S. C.

Janet Gray spent her vacation with her family in Pulaski, Virginia.

Evelyn Milligan went to Tabor City, N. C., to see her family.

Shirley Cook visited relatives in Salisbury, N. C.

Willie Ervin visited in McCall, S. C., and Wilmington, N. C.

Mary Camp spent her holidays with relatives in Shelby, N. C.

N. C. Beverly went to Garden City, S. C.

Ruby Patterson visited her family in Clinton, Tennessee.

Grady Thompson enjoyed a vacation in Washington, D. C.

Zena Phillips visited relatives in Roanoke, Virginia.

Lula Roberts went to Bristol, Virginia, to spend some time with relatives.

Lillian Sipes toured Maryland, Washington and Pennsylvania.

Frank Dingler enjoyed the homecoming at Kennedy Home Orphanage in Kinston, N. C.

Kitty Hilliard visited in eastern North Carolina.

If you were at Myrtle Beach, maybe you saw a fellow worker there.

Spending vacations there were Tommy Beck, Clete Blevins (who also went to the mountains), Ulysses Workman, Violet Bowman (who also went to Ocean Drive), Roy Watson, Helen Dailey, Patsy Smith, Brenda Thomas, Marie Bodenheimer, Linda Cook and Mary McClellan.

At Carolina Beach were Billie Herring, Marcel Welch, Esther and