and her family who went camping at Morrow Mountain.

Congratulations to Sarah and Aaron Outlaw who celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary on September 11, 1973.

Mae Taylor will be missed after September 31, 1973. She will be retiring from her job as inspector in the coning department.

John Rice surely is proud of his new 1973 Chevelle.

Happy Birthday to Vernie Tucker, Geneva Melton, Bertha Pruitt and Mary Crump!

A-M Texturing sponsored two softball teams (one for the men and one for the ladies) this past season. Both teams made the play-offs; and to celebrate, a picnic for the players and their families was held on July 14 at City Lake.

Check Before You Buy

A salesman comes to your door with a "special offer" to carpet your house wall to wall at a big discount, and the company will finance the deal on easy monthly payments. You have never heard of the salesman, nor have you ever heard of the company he says he represents.

A photographer drives up to your home, makes an appointment to make pictures of your child, and after making the pictures, asks for a deposit for a beautiful life-size portrait.

You want the carpet and you want the picture, but how do you find out if they are reliable business representatives?

The television repairman picks up your TV set. After repeated calls to him, he keeps promising to return the set as soon as he can catch up with other calls and can "shoot" the trouble. After four months, he still hasn't returned the set. What can you do?

Call your Better Business Bureau.
