

Promotions Announced in Plants and Offices

Two plant managers in Adams-Millis Hosiery Company have been promoted to Group General Managers, and a number of other promotions have been announced throughout Adams-Millis Corporation.

The new Group General Managers are Danny F. McNair, who had been Plant Manager at Plant 3/10 in Kernersville, and Kenneth Van Joyce, who had been Plant Manager at Plant 11 in Mt. Airy.

Larry Strader has been promoted to Plant Manager at Plant 3, he moves from that position at Plant 10.

Joe Thomas

Joe H. Thomas has been promoted from Director of Purchasing to Director of Purchasing and Quality Control. He also assumes additional duties in warehouse and trucking management. Joe came with Adams-Millis in 1980.

In the Administrative Office, Lynda Lamb has been named Accounting Supervisor. Lynda came to Adams-Millis a year and a half ago after graduating with a degree in Accounting from Appalachian State University at Boone. She lives in Lexington. Records show that Lynda apparently is the first woman to hold this position at Adams-Millis.

William H. (Bill) Thomas has been promoted to the position of Manager of Quality Control for TexElastic Corporation. Bill has been with TexElastic since 1979 and prior to his new position was a Sales/Technical Representative.

At Plant 22, in Raeford, James A. (Jamie) Johnson has been promoted to Laboratory Supervisor. Jamie has been with TexElastic since 1979 and just prior to his promotion was Manufacturing/Administrative Assistant.

Seventy percent of the population believes that smoking should be restricted to fewer places. More than half of all smokers agree to this as well.

A leading life insurance company report shows that the average life expectancy for a 32-year-old man who did not smoke cigarettes was 79 years, compared with 72 years for a 32-year-old smoker.

When the Sears' Award of Excellence was presented to Plant 3 in Kernersville, all the employees attending the ceremony wore a T-shirt given to them by Adams-Millis Hosiery Company. The logo on the shirt was an Adams-Millis sock and the words: "I Survived the Adams-Millis Fire and Reconstruction! March 19, 1981." The logo designed by Theresa Smith who works in the Finishing Department. In the photographs above are just a few of the employees proudly wearing their T-shirts. From left to right are Barbara Haithcock, Doris Pinyan, Ruby Shields, Nellie Grimes and Arlene Mabe of Finishing and Jim Barlow, Irene Williams, Geneva Biby, Teresa Trent, Beverly Godfrey, and Bill Howell of Shipping and Box Stock Departments. Inset photos show Theresa Smith, at left, and Doug Shelly, Superintendent of Maintenance.
