Well, folks, Christmas is gone and old Santa stopped here and there. The things he left most of all were a few pounds around the middle. I bet the diet scales really are booming!

Frank Starret went home to Georgia. He went bird hunting while down there and he says the feathers really flew. The only thing, they're still on the birds.

Dallas Crouch went home to Alabama. He must have had himself a time; he was two days late for work.

Red Ingram went to Florida with his wife and friends. They really liked the weather down there, so he says. Tommy Kemp has found himself a new home, at the bowling alley. (Since his BEST GAL gave him bowling balls, bag, shoes and all.) . . . Louise Welch won't say what she got but we think it was a Buick, ha! ha!

We all were sorry to hear that Earl Ward passed away. Our sympathy goes to his family.

By the way, your reporter got herself a suede jacket from old Santa "herself."

That's all for now, see you next month.

Here's hoping each of you have a very happy New Year!

We all wish to thank the company for the beautiful bedspreads we received at Christmas.

Hazel Ward spent Christmas with her grandchildren in Asheville . . . Frances and Chip Workman wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Jancy, to Jessie Cecil. The vows were spoken Thursday, Dec. 22, in Chesterfield, S. C.

Virginia Thornton, Esther Hughes' daughter, is in Duke Hospital. She would appreciate your prayers.

Supervisors of the Pants Department wish to thank each of you for all the very nice Christmas gifts and cards we received. They said it was very thoughtful to be remembered in such a way.

Best wishes to Margie McGhee who became Mrs. Robert E. Stroud December 23.

We are sorry that Mary McMahan has been sick . . . Patricia Lambeth, Marie McDowell and Della Pierce are back with us after being on leave. They each had a visit from the stork. Welcome back, girls.

Louise Overman and family spent Christmas Day with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Beulah Overman in Liberty . . . Best wishes to Shelby Hankins, who became Mrs. Paul Livengood Monday, Jan. 9 in Chesterfield, S. C. . . . Gertrude Spainhour's mother-in-law, Mrs. R. J. Spainhour, came to visit her last weekend.

We wish to express our sympathy to Mattie Montgomery whose brother, A. O. Davis, passed away recently.

Your reporter wishes for everyone a Happy and Prosperous New Year!

First, we want to thank the company for the beautiful bedspreads given us for Christmas.

We have a new bride in our department, Margaret Pilcher, who was married to Frank Phillips December 24. They are living at 226 Montlieu Ave.

Artie and Howard Okley, along with friends, enjoyed a trip to Florida during Christmas . . . Eltis Morgon visited her mother in Albemarle Christmas Day . . . Jessie and Bill Lehmon spent the weekend in Taylorsville visiting relatives and friends . . . Edna Suits and family spent Christmas day with her parents in Jacksonsville.

Carrie Payne wishes to thank everyone for the lovely gifts and cards received at Christmas . . . Millie Sawyer enjoyed having her grandson with her for Christmas . . . Mae Rumsey's daughter and family left for Germany December 28. They will be there for three years.

Stella Hudspeth is the proud owner of a new home on Friddle Street . . . Rosa Wilkerson spent Christmas day with her in-laws in South Carolina. Mabel Johnson said she had the best Christmas ever — she had all her children home at one time . . . Annie Epps had as her guests over the weekend, her brother and daughter.

Polly visited friends in Greensboro Sunday . . . Corinna Goodale spent Christmas with her children in Oxford . . . Your reporter is a proud grandmother again. It's a little girl — born December 19 in Thomasville to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whitehead. Her name is Joyce Lynn.

Donald Farlow became uncle January 8. It's a niece and the parents are Louise and Ronald Gaudin of Archdale.

Diane Williams, daughter of Sadie Hedgecock, is a patient at the local hospital. She is undergoing treatment and observation and is not allowed visitors at present.
