

FINISHING ROOM—MILL ONE

Non-Productive and Folders—1st Row, left to right: Bessie Patterson, Effie Owens, Leola Guyer, Joyce Leonard, Lucille McDowell, Mr. Hardison; 2nd row: Katherine Morris, Gertrude Welborn, Jeanette Walton, Velna Whitley, Iola Leach, Helen Payne; 3rd Row: Clara Strayhorn, Christine Cecil, Ometa McMillan, Velna Gatlin Virginia Dennis.

Non-Productive and Pairs—1st Row, left to right: Hattie Morris, Emma Ragan, Claude Petty, Gertrude Coleman, Vivian Hunt, Bertha Poole; 2nd row: Emma Hoke, Mamie Taylor, Hallie Bost, Annie Spencer, Mary Hill, Irene Keener, Grace Ward; 3rd row: Mildred Elmore, Mattie Kennedy, Alice Clodfelter, Mamie Beck, Emma Hutchins, Dora Hooper, Maggie Banks, Annie Ketchie.

FINISHING ROOM—MILL TWO

Folders and Non-Productive—Left to Right—Front Row: Robert Varner, Mrs. Arline Whittaker, Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Betty Easter, Miss Minnie Tysinger. Back Row: Mrs. Betty Bayles, Mrs. Zelma Smith, Mrs. Hannah Wilson, Mrs. Leorice Jones, Mrs. Maggie Cook, Mrs. Pearl Freeman, Miss Polly Combs, Miss Gertrude Bolling Miss Eva Hunt, Mrs. Freda Robbins.

Menders, Folders and Non-Productive—1st row, left to right: Miss Lillian Beck, Mrs. Libby Stroud, Mrs. Carrie Cox, Miss Auvilla Hedgecock, Miss Mable Huff, Mrs. Janie Brown, Jack Knox; 2nd row—Standing, Mr. L. J. Harper, Mrs. Mabel Jordan, Mrs. Zelma Varner, Mrs. Ruby Walton, Mrs. Helen Carter, Mrs. Edna Burton, Miss Evelyn Walton; 3rd row: Mrs. Lillie Clodfelter, Mrs. Lemner Stewart, Mrs. Anna Boswell, Miss Bessie Strickland, Mrs. Ava Ellis, E. C. Leonard.

ITEMS & COMMENTS

(English Street Plant)

LOOPING ROOM No. 1

We are very happy because we are getting a short vacation.

Mildred Ward is very happy. Her husband is home from overseas.

Mr. Coffee says there is a certain woman in this department that has quite a large family, and he doesn't know her age, but he does know she has never used any make up or shined her shoes.

We are glad to have Margaret Frv with us on day-time now.

We had a number of servicemen visitors during the past month and they all seem to enjoy the visit. We hope they did.

Mrs. Lawson is visiting her sister in Mebane. Hope she has a nice time.

We wish to welcome to our department Nina Saunders and Eunice Smith.

Hattie sure does like this new 2600 style work. She says it goes on the looper by itself.

We wonder what's wrong with Hilda. She can't ever get to work any more.

Ollie Armentrout is so excited she can't work. Her husband is on his way home.

FINISHING ROOM No. 1

Jeannette says she sure is glad that Gertrude and Lucy got some male so they can smile instead of frowning.

If you really want to see some snazzy hair do's, just come thru Finishing Room No. 1.

We are all wondering what happened to Mr. H.'s foot?

We understand that all the finishing room is getting off a week for the 4th. But there's 3 certain girls already been off two weeks, planning on going to the beach.

Virginia Dennis is a good demonstrator, eh, Pete?

Joyce Leonard says she wishes they would put arms on the stools, so she could stay in them these hot days.

We were all thrilled to see Moody greet her son, Willard, from England.

We are glad to have Mary Hill back after a 10-day furlough with her husband.

Katherine M. says she thinks she needs her lunch more so than the roach.

We are glad to have Mrs. Young Hedrick and Ward back with us.

We enjoyed having Polly Wright in to see us while home on a furlough.

Anyone having boils, see Mr. Saunders. He has a sure cure.

Mrs. Hoke is really thrilled to have her son-in-law home from Bermuda for a 17-day furlough.

We know a certain pairer who is really dressing up her home for a soldier husband who is coming on home soon.

We regret to hear of the death of Riley McDowell's father.

Every time we look for Claude he is either going up on the elevator or coming down. Wonder what he's found upstairs?

Q. When is an elevator like a Jap Navy?

A. When it is going down.

KNITTING ROOM No. 2

First Shift

Roy Yarborough has started a dairy. He has goats galore! He drinks a gallon of milk a day. Some one told him it would improve his looks.

We have two fixers that are seldom here on Monday. They were both here on a Monday, now they are both looking forward to the 4th—they need a rest!

Dan Joyner injured his arm and is going to the hospital every day or two, taking treatments. Says he doesn't mind as long as he has the cute little nurse to treat him.

DYE HOUSE

We were sorry not to be in last month's Melrose-Glen, as many of our readers expected to read about us. But here we are reporting for (Continued on Page 5)