

Current and Local News

Prof. J.E. Paterson a licensed pharmacist and professor of chemistry at N.C. College is now putting out a fine line of toilet articles and flooring of all kinds. Prof. Paterson comes to us from Waco Texas and is a powerful asset to any community and state in which he lives.

Dr. Elert Russel of Duke University after a visit of Nicaragua where he made a special study of political conditions asserts that only rebels are bombed wherever found without proper assurance. That no women and children are present to lose their lives; but that our country is aiding in robbing the Nicaraguans.

Dr. Henry Howard pastor of the Presbyterian Church of New York, addressed the student body of this school in the Avery Auditorium on Jan. 25, 26, 1928, on the following subjects: "The Development of a Rounded Man", "Relations" and the "Human Equation". No lectures more inspiring have ever been rendered from platform of our Auditorium.

Dr. Scamthing of the city Presbyterian Church, Dr. Sopa the Professor of Theology at Duke University and many other distinguished visitors of both races were present throughout the series of addresses.

Dr. J. E. Shepard, addressed the students on Feb. 8, 1928 on the subject, "Making the most of Life". The address was quite inspiring.

The Hampton Institute Glee Club appeared at the City Auditorium, January 31, 1928 with their director Mr. Nathaniel Dett. The program consisted of several piano, vocal, and violin selections. Mr. Dett also rendered two piano selections. The program was well received by those present.

Two comedies, "A Race for a Wife," and "Do Men Gossip" were presented in the Avery Auditorium, Friday Feb. 11, 1928 for the benefit of the Campus Echo. Those taking part in "A Race for a Wife" were Mr. Wm. King and Mr. Chas. Suggs. "Do Men Gossip" was portrayed by the Misses Ann McAden, Laura Blake, Henrietta Forrest, Catherine Ruffin, Eva Hall and Gladys Fair. These young ladies, with the exception of Miss Fair impersonated several young men of the campus. Miss Fair impersonated Miss Spencer Thomas. Miss Helen Baker rendered a vocal selection. The entire program was well received by those present.