Intra-mural Highlights

By JOE BECTON

The intramural basketball program for men began here on December 1. A double-round-robin with two leagues, Maroon and Gray, of seven teams began a schedule of 84 games. A tourn-

A revised group of Panthers came on the court to start the second half with Coach Harris' star, Carl Smith, center, on the bench. Smith had scored only one point during the entire first half, but it was his rebounding that kept Union in the game during that half. This group played a head-up game until Coach Harris inserted Smith once again with his team still three points behind and 11 minutes left to play. Smith entered and scored nine points for a total of ten for the evening and his rebounding was a great factor in the last minutes of play.

The Eagles put up a valiant try to capture the game in the later minutes but bad passes, no team work, and refusing to pump under both boards were their biggest down fall.

The play of Gil Riley, John Keels, Sam Jones, James Sligh, and Carlton Bell rejuvenated the crowd many times during the last half, though this wasn't quite enough to keep the bacon in the Eagles' nest.

ment, single-elimination, among the four top teams in each league will highlight the participation at the close of the campaign.

Ten games have been played among the competing teams and the high scorers at the time of this release (Dec. 10) were Artie Jenkins, of the Vets, with 14 points, Josh Wooten, of the Crusaders with 19 points, and Duke Saunders, of the Gunners with eight points.

Bob Stephens, Commissioner, has stated that each manager must come by his office to receive a schedule of the remaining games. "It is important to appear at the scheduled times to eliminate forfeits and postponements which may tend to disrupt the entire program," he said.

Standings as of December 10 show the Vets in first place in the Maroon League, and the Grad Five leading the Grey League.

Mathematics Club Elects Officers

In a recent meeting, the members of the Mathematics Club became acquainted with students who wish to become members of the Mathematics Club. Also at the same meeting, the following officers were elected: Herbert Bullard, president; Joseph Fogg, vice president; Fredreda Roberson, secretary; Charles Evans, treasurer and Cleveland Darden and Leroy Williamson, co-deans of pledges.

Dr. C. E. Boulware is adviser to the local group.

Webster, Roberts, Bullock Shine In Turkey Day Win Over Aggies

By JOE BECTON

The North Carolina College Eagles romped over the A. and T. College Aggies on Thanksgiving Day, November 22, before 8,500 fans on O'Kelly Field to clinch at least a third part of the CIAA crown for the third time in the past four years.

The game was scoreless until less than two minutes before the end of the first half. Then the Eagles proved to the fans that they deserved to be the champions by scoring twice in a short period of time.

The first score came with the ball resting on the Aggies' ten yard line. It was first and goal for the Eagles when Coach Riddick sent Dearl Webster in to replace Cliff Jackson. With everyone thinking that Webster would attempt a field goal, he quickly threw a pass to end, Bobby Johnson, who had gotten behind the Aggies' defense for the score. Webster's PAT was good.

After Webster had kicked off to the Aggies in those dying minutes of the first half, the Aggies went to the air in an effort to catch up. Francis Roberts, center, a defensive wizard, intercepted an enemy pass for the second score. Again Webster's PAT was good. The score at half time was NCC: 14, A. and T.: 0.

There was no more scoring until late in the third period when Carvis Bullock, fullback, found a big hole on the left side of his line and raced 78 yards for the final tally.

At no time did the Aggies go past the twenty yard stripe of the Eagles because of the fine defense set up by the Eagles' line.

Hank Lewis, Bobby Johnson, Baxter Holman, John Baker, Joe Allen, Duke Saunders, Francis Roberts, Hal Joyner, Cliff Jackson, Carvis Bullock, and Al Montgomery composed the starting team that showed the largest crowd of the season their best in football fare.

NCC, Delaware, Morgan

North Carolina College, Delaware, and Morgan were declared tied for the championship in the 17 college CIAA's 1956 gridiron race in standings released by L. T. Walker, conference statistician.

The three schools posted identical Dickinson ratings of 26.25. Maryland State, defending champion, is in fourth place. The Dickinson system figures team standings on the basis of the strength of opponents.

The Eagles ended the season with a 5-0-2 record while Delaware and Morgan ended with an identical 5-0-1 record in conference play.

Riddick says he is supported in his claim by computations from former CIAA statisticians J. B. McLendon Jr., now head basketball coach of Tennessee State. Official announcement of all conference championship will be made at the CIAA annual meeting. Riddick's protest will be presented at the annual meeting.

A. Phi A. Welcomes Neophytes

By ROBERT SIMMONS

The members of Gamma Beta chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity welcome brothers James E. Nesbitt, Anthony Pitt and Alphonso P. Maillard into the "House of Alpha."

Scheduled for the near future is an Alpha sponsored Symphony Orchestra.

The Sphinx Club of Alpha Phi Alpha wishes to acknowledge the admission of the following men to the pledge club:

Little Brothers Samuel Floyd, president; Charles Thorpe, vice president; Lawrence Ennett, Secretary; Roosevelt Browne, treasurer.

Brown, a transfer student from South Carolina State, became active as of this probation period. Says Alpha President Chambers, "This is a very impressive group, and we are expecting great things of these men; so let it be known that all is truly well in the 'House of Alpha'."

are entertained by the entire NCC student body; they are usually entertained by a few hand-picked students. In many instances, the general student body does not know who they are, why they are here, or anything concerning them. If a person is given some responsibilities, his interest is aroused, and he develops a feeling of belonging. There will never be any school spirit here, to any extent, so long as students feel that no one cares about them other than their money each month.

Do you wish to be one of those persons who hesitate to return to our dear old Alma Mater after graduation because of the lack of school spirit you have now? Don't you want to be able to return in years to come and see and feel that old NCC spirit as you enter the Campus?

Sincerely,
 William H. Anderson

floats for Homecoming Day. These things are either furnished by the Dormitory, State Government, or purchased by the student. Thus the student becomes sort of independent so to speak, and his interest in his immediate surroundings is taken for granted. He is no longer interested in the general welfare of those around him, or of the needs of the College because his needs are satisfied.

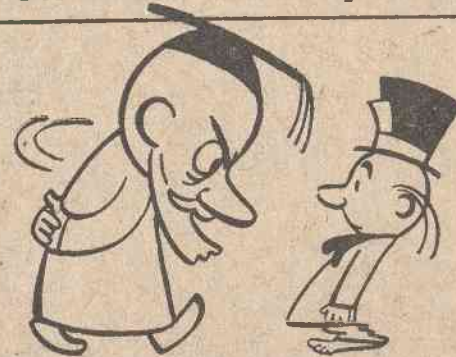

Well, if you are expecting great things of NCC, you should do something to promote them now while you are here, for when you leave, the opportunity will have gone forever. There is no greater feeling or welcome than the feeling one gets upon returning to a place that was warm, inviting, loving, friendly, and meaningful.

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY $1.98

I met a man with a rather large head Who looked at me and finally said:

"If ever you're caught Without any thought And you think that you ought To be thinking a thought, Buy one from me before it's too late. Thoughts for today, only one-ninety-eight."

"A reasonable price," I said and bought The following brainy, thoughtful thought:

FAINT PLEASURE AIN'T PLEASURE!

Take your pleasure big! Smoke the cigarette that gives you more of what you're smoking for . . . more real enjoyment, more real rich flavor . . . more smoking satisfaction. Smoke a Chesterfield and enjoy it to the hilt!

Smoke for real . . . smoke Chesterfield!
