

Dr. J. N. Hughley Names February Vesper Speakers

On January 27, instead of the regular Vesper Hour, there was a campus-wide religious service in the Senior Bowl at 7:00 a.m. Under a beautiful sunrise, students gathered to participate in this pre-breakfast service, which was sponsored by the YWCA and the campus Sunday School.

Dr. J. Neal Hughley, chairman of the Religious Activities Committee, announced recently the names of the Vesper Hour speakers for the month of Feb. On February 3, the Religious Activities Committee will present the Rev. R. L. Speaks, pastor of the St. Mark AME Zion church, Durham; on February 10, the Rev. William Scott, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church, Durham; on Feb. 17, the Rev. J. Neal Hughley, college minister; and on Feb. 24, the Rev. Dr. Frederick West, pastor of the Hillyer Memorial Christian Church, Raleigh.

All programs at the Vesper Hour are scheduled for 3:15 P.M. in B. N. Duke Auditorium.

Girls Begin Play In 'Mural Loop'

The North Carolina College Intramural program for women got underway during the second week in January.

There are six teams which are participating in basketball, volley ball, and softball. It is a process of round robin, with a tournament for each sport at the end of the sport season.

The six teams represent A. D. Shepard dormitory, FDC, McLean sophomore dormitory, the Rush Hall, PEM, and the Orchestis. From these teams will come individual competition in bandminton, paddle tennis, shuffleboard, social dance, square dance, and table tennis.

The advisor for the intramural program is Mrs. J. J. Sherman, and her student aide is Barbara Hodges. The Commissioner of Officials is B. Jean Peterson.

Mrs. Sherman stated that the Intramural Sports Committee has processed all teams applications.

Mrs. Sherman also said recently that she expects to see more women participating in this intramural program.

George said that he once wanted to attend the University of North Carolina after finishing high school, but upon learning that he would not be able to join a fraternity there, he eliminated it as a choice of a college. Now he is trying to decide between Harvard and Columbia.

est in human nature. The novel does not tell anything observant people have not already noticed about human existence, nor does it offer remedies for the problems it focuses upon, but it is written in a vibrant style that defies eventual stolidity. For these reasons I feel that Pyton Place will endure as long as Main Street has.

And when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed. ... —(St. Luke 14, 13-14.)

We who enjoy richly the good things of life—love, health, happiness, freedom from want and anxiety—surely are called upon to share them with the less fortunate. Sharing indeed will be blessed, being always a privilege and opportunity of praising the Lord.

next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 11, 1957, or on Tuesday, October 29, 1957, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1958 take the May test.

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Copies of the Bulletin of Information (with application form bound in), which gives details of registration and administration, as well as sample questions, are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Completed ap-

THOUGHT

If a centaur married a mermaid fair, What kind of children would she bear? Would they have hide or would they have scales? Would they have hooves or long fishy tails? Would they eat seaweed or would they eat hay? It's one of the problems of the day.
