Poetry Contest Open To Students

NCC students are being invited for the first time to compete in the third annual Riverside poetry writing contest. The contest is being sponsored by the interdenominational Protestant Riverside Church of New York city and is open to all students of accredited colleges in the United States.

Winning poems will be published in a special anthology, consisting of Marianne Moore, Alan Swallow and Howard Nemerov. A board of judges will review the entries.

The closing date for manuscripts is May 1, 1957. The winning poems will be announced by August 1.

Competing students must be 26 years of age and under and must first submit manuscripts to the college representative here. The selection which survives local competition will be forwarded by the representative to the Riverside Contest Board on or before May 1. Poems must be original, unpublished (except in college publications) in English and under one hundred lines in length.

English instructor H. G. Dawson Jr. has been named by Dr. W. Edward Farrison, English department chairman, as the NCC representative. He may be contacted for further information in either the English office on the third floor of the Class Room Building or the Campus Echo office on the first floor of the library.

Juniors Sponsor Blind Jazzers

By ANDREW EVANS

The junior class of North Carolina College invited the Rhythm Kidds of the State School for the Blind in Raleigh, to make a repeat performance in the B. N. Duke auditorium on March 29, 1957. The Rhythm Kidds enjoyed immense success in an earlier performance here which was sponsored by the junior class.

Since their organization about five years ago, the Rhythm Kidds have won praises throughout the eastern section of North Carolina and in portions of Virginia.

Mr. Marcus Ingram, who was once a student at the State School for the Blind and who is now a junior at North Carolina College, was master of ceremonies for the group. Having played in the band during his latter high school days, Ingram still keeps in close contact with the group.

Sticklers!

WHAT IS A LUCKY AT LUNCH TIME?
(SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

WHAT A MENU! A dank frank, an ol' roll, a pallid salad, and a dry pie. Let's face it, friend—your lunch-time fare needs brightening! Recipe: light up a Lucky! It won't make a filet out of that frank, but it's a Noon Boon nevertheless. A Lucky, you see, is all cigarette—all great smoking, all the way through. It's made of fine tobacco—mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. But why wait till noon to try one? Right now, you'll say Luckies are the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!
