Bell And Correll Steering Heads

Johnnie Mae Correll and Grady C. Bell, seniors, have been elected to lead the Women's and Men's Steering Committees, respectively, for the current school year.

Correll, Salisbury native, is a mathematics major and chemistry minor. Prior to her election, she served as a member of the Steering Committee. She is a member of the following organizations: AKA, Math Club, Choir, Future Teachers of America, and the Student Government.

During Correll's freshman year she received the "Volkmennia Prize" for being selected the most outstanding freshman.

Johnnie, as she is called by friends, plans a career in Government work. Her hobbies are reading, sewing, cooking and listening to all types of music.

Bell, Washington, D. C. native, is a Business Administration major and one of the campus's most outstanding young men. He won a certificate of merit for being runner-up in student participation during the past school year.

He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Student Government, Pi Gamma Mu Honor Society and the State Student Legislature.

"Sherlock" as he is known by his friends, plans a law career after graduation. His hobbies are reading Shakespearean Poetry, boxing, reading magazines, and Rock 'N Roll music.

Feelin' blue? Need money, too? Students, we've got news for you!

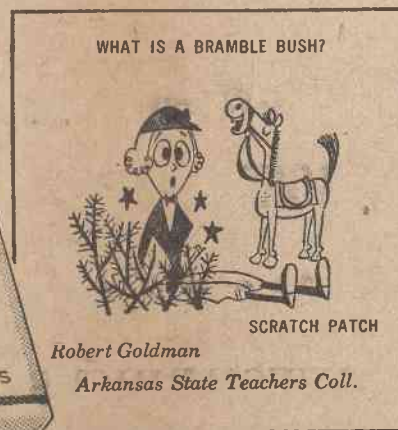

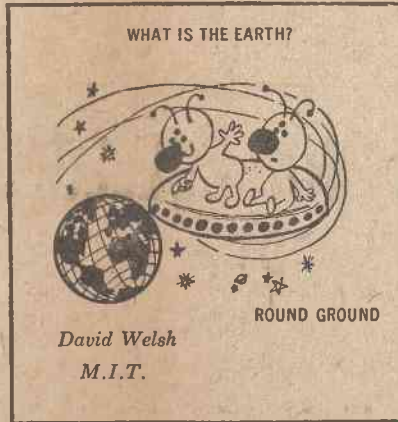

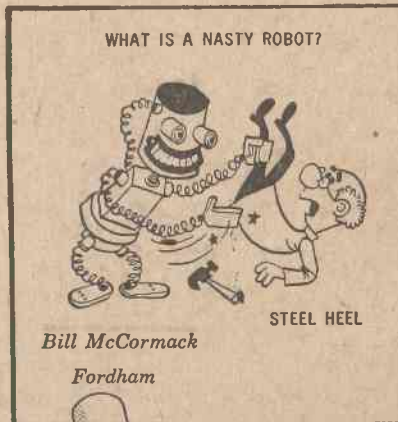

Sticklers are back!

Send yours in and

MAKE $25

MOST POPULAR GAME that ever went to college—that's Sticklers! Just write a simple riddle and a two-word rhyming answer. For example: What's a big cat shot full of holes? (Answer: peppered leopard.) Both words must have the same number of syllables—bleak freak, fluent truant, vinery finery. Send Sticklers, with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Don't do drawings! We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we use in our ads—and for hundreds that never see print. While you're Stickling, light up a light smoke—light up a Lucky. You'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

LIGHT UP A light SMOKE—LIGHT UP A LUCKY!
