where she was graduated valedictorian of her high school class.

Since her enrollment here at NCC, Miss McDonald has acquired a long list of offices in the 20 organizations of which she has been a member. During her first year she was an active Thespian, a member of the House Council at Annie Day Shepard Dormitory, the Campus Echo staff, the Student Government, and the Intercollegiate Fellowship.

In her second year the literary-minded drama minor participated in several major Thespian productions, was president of the McLean Hall, joined the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the Vesper Promotion Committee, and the I.C.P.

She was parliamentarian of the AKA's, as junior, and joined the NAACP, the Food Preparation and Service Committee, the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, Pi Gamma Mu Social Science Honor Society, the Alpha Kappa Delta Sociological Honor Society, made the Dean's List, and was elected Senior-at-large of the Women's Student Government.

Currently Miss McDonald is on the Welfare Committee, a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, an attendant to "Miss NCC," secretary of the Campus Sunday School, president of the Alpha Kappa Mu, and "Miss Campus Echo."

Her favorite hobby is reading novels, many of which are reviewed monthly in the Campus Echo. She utilizes further her prolific ability as the literary editor of the student publication.

Each year two Hamilton watches are awarded, one to a student elected by the students and one to a faculty member chosen by the faculty.

The Trouble

is in the making, and is necessary if England and the Commonwealth are not both to fall from grace.

Such policies as apartheid, as practiced in the Union, are as obnoxious to the American Negro and other colored peoples as it is to the native Africans. That such a condition can exist is almost hard, if not impossible, to believe, viewing the fact that 75 per cent of the population is of African extract. Even many of the native police who regularly kill, are obeying their masters. This is a novel kind of slavery, highly legal and greatly hated.

When a democracy is instituted or a benevolent prime minister assumes the authority of the Union, the trouble, or at least the mass murdering, will cease. But with a democracy or a benevolent prime minister, racial segregation and discrimination shall also cease.

floor route, information about the prize-winning rooms, and hints on points of interest. After touring the dormitory the guests will be ushered into the television room, where they will be given refreshments and souvenirs.

One of the features of the Open-House Committee is the crowning of "Miss Chidley Hall." The newly-elected Miss Angela Keys will be crowned by "Mr. Chidley Hall," Nick Gerald.

A symposium on "Social Graces" has been planned for 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The program is being organized by committee chairman Spurgeon Simmons. Topics for discussion will include: "The Role Of The College Man," "College Activities," and "Being A Good Sportsman."

The open-house activities will be climaxed by a banquet at 7 p.m. in the College dining hall. The guest speaker for the occasion will be Sam Jones, a '57 graduate. The NCC great and present stellar player for the Boston Celtics is expected to boost attendance considerably.

The banquet was planned by a committee of chairman James Bryant, Benjamin Speller, Leonard DeShields, Douglas Brown, and Jesse Townsend. The Open-House Committee, William Brandon, chairman; Charles Jackson, James Martin, Reginald Pryor, George Henderson, and Donald Motley, planned and coordinated the program in cooperation with Dean of Men John L. Stewart and his assistant, Mr. Robert McAdams.

A mother-daughter team will be featured at the B. N. Duke Auditorium on May 6 when the College's Dance Group presents its annual spring recital.

Mrs. Violette Norrell, a teacher in Richmond, Va., and her seven-year-old daughter will do a special tap duet, according to Mrs. Barbara Johnson, NCC dance directress.

Holder of a B.A. from Virginia State and a master's degree from Columbia University, Mrs. Norrell has danced since she was a child in her native Richmond.

Shortly after her graduation from Virginia State she was stricken with rheumatic fever. For a while it looked like she'd never dance again. But she fought the malady and has returned to a brilliant career.

In addition to the Norrells,

Five Join Honor Society, May 6

Five students will join the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society in initiation activities here May 6.

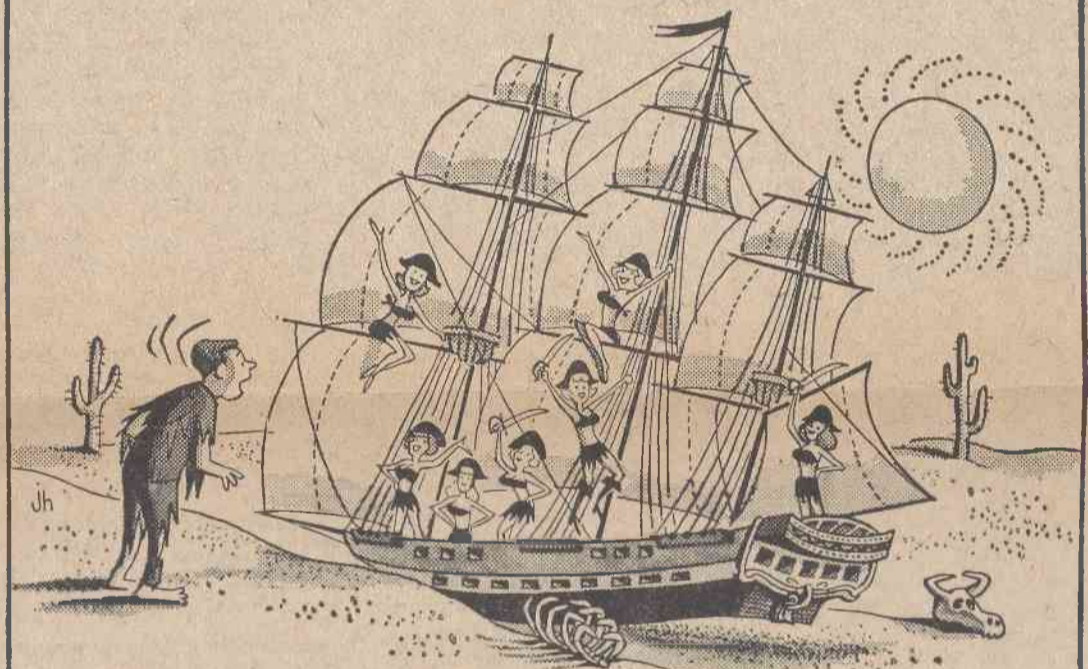

The five are: Ruth Velline, junior commerce major; Miriam Towes, language major; Virdell Tedder, drama major; Carl High, accounting major; and William Stroy, chemistry major.

Cynthia McDonald is president of the College Chapter of the honor society.

the May 6 recital will feature a number called "Student Showcase" with choreography by Bettye Taylor, Shirley Combest, Clinton Shearin, and Clarence Williams.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(DIAL IN THESE QUESTIONS AND SEE IF YOU'RE IN FOCUS*)

If you saw a full-rigged sailing ship in the middle of the desert, would you say (A) "Long time no sea!" (B) "Wish they'd invent talking mirages," or (C) "Anything can happen in Las Vegas!"

A  B  C

When a man says, "Brevity is the soul of wit," he means (A) he's about to make a long speech; (B) wise thoughts come in short sentences; (C) "Shut up!"

A  B  C

You're caught in a pouring rain—and you're offered a lift by a pal whose driving is dangerously erratic. Would you (A) tell him you enjoy walking in the rain? (B) say, "Sure—but let me drive"? (C) accept rather than hurt his feelings?

A  B  C

In choosing a filter cigarette, would you pick one that (A) says the filter doesn't count, only the tobacco; (B) is designed to do the best filtering job for the best taste; (C) gives you an enormous filter but very little taste.

When you think for yourself . . . you depend on judgment, not chance, in your choice of cigarettes. That is why men and women who think for themselves usually smoke Viceroy. They know only Viceroy has a thinking man's filter—the most advanced filter design of them all. And only Viceroy has a smoking man's taste . . . the full rich taste of choice tobacco.

*If you have checked (C) in three out of four questions, you're pretty sharp . . . but if you picked (B), you think for yourself!
