HEAVY TURNOUT EXPECTED STUDENTS GO TO POLLS WEDNESDAY

By Juella McQueen
Echo Staff Writer

Wednesday is election day on campus and candidates are in the final stretch of their campaigning. The polls open at 8 Wednesday morning in the Alfonso Elder Student Union on west campus. A heavy turnout of Central's 5000 students is expected. Over 80 students are running for offices in North Carolina Central's annual student elections.

Running for the office of President of the Student Government Association are Ervin Arnell Baker, Antonio Davila, Audwin E. Jones, and Carlton O'Neal.

Campaigning for the office of Vice-President of the SGA are Quinton Brown, Neal Bailey Harper, Lynn E. Graham, Delaney M. Wilson, and Stephen Wingate.

The eight ladies campaigning for the office of Miss NCCU include Edith Allen, Donna Crowder, Lorrie Dockery, Tara Freese, Sheryl D. Massey, Sabrina Patterson, Cathy Price and Sharon K. Isley.

Only one student is seeking the highly admired and envied office of Editor-in-Chief of THE CAMPUS ECHO, and she is Teresa Burke. This is the first time in over ten years that a male has not sought the office of Editor.

Two juniors are running for the office of Editor-in-Chief of the Eagle Yearbook. They are Orlando Neal and Phyllis Steadman.

Only one student, Micheal L. King is seeking the office of Editor-in-Chief of EX-UMBRA, NCCU's literary

There is little competition for Senior Class offices as only one person is running for most of the offices. Willie E. Reese, III is running unopposed for Senior Class President. Also running unopposed are James Earl Mills for Vice-President; Shelia Bazemore for Secretary and Gerald Price for Treasurer. The four ladies running for Miss Senior include Emma Deese, Dekota Grier, Linda Hill and Pamela Seabrook. Campaigning for Senior congress are Bernice Jeffreys, Rose Barlow, Cleve D. Brandon, Phila-thea Dixon, Cornell Jones, Calvin Kearns, Ervin Keaton, Ellen Hector, Deborah Nance, Hazel Watson and Clara M. Winborne.

Running for Junior Class

President are Curtis Brown, Kerry Johnson, Cheryl D. King, and Curtis Massey.

Three students are running for Vice-President and they are Karen D. Langford, Jacky R. McClarin and Richard Owens. No one is running for the office of Secretary and only one student, Richard Smith is seeking the office of Treasurer. The seven ladies running for Miss Junior are Gwendolyn Ellis, Wanda Hyatt, Lisa Nelson, Joyce S. Portee, Sadie Riggins, Ardicha Swanson and Rosa Simpson. The seven students seeking election to Junior Class congress are Carolyn "Neese" Graham, Patricia A. Hardy, Wanda Little, Lorrie Love, Margie L. Parker, Donna "Re-Run" Perry and Calvin L. Williams.

Four students are running for President of the Sophomore Class and they are Darryl T. Banks, Eljovonia Chapman, Duane Howell and Ladiner Rhett. Seeking the office of Vice-President are Brenda Baldwin and Leon Rouson. Two students, Sandra Staton, and Patrick Langston are running for secretary. Rodney Basnight and Cynthia B. Jordan are running for Treasurer. The four students seeking election to the Sophomore class congress are Rovin Massey, Nita Nance, Orlando Sample, and Charles V. Williams. Seeking the name of Miss Sophomore are Claudia Freeman, Benita Newkirk, Lawanda Oates, Gwendolyn Spain and Cindy Stafford.
