

Keeping in Touch

•ON THE GO . . .

Katherine Le Guin, Instructor in the Department of Physical Therapy, has returned from a vacation that took her to Portland, Oregon and Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Lela DuBois, Housekeeping Supervisor, returned on November 5 from a two-weeks trip to Europe with her daughter, Suzanne, who is a stewardess with United Airlines. Together they flew to several European cities including Paris, Rome and Amsterdam. Mrs. Hilda Sears, Housekeeping Supervisor, attended an insurance convention in New York with her husband, Carlton, and they also enjoyed the closing days of the World's Fair. Mrs. Carolyn Brooks attended the annual national convention of the Occupational Therapy Association held in Miami, Florida from November 1 through November 6.

Two of the ANA Exchange Nurses, Margaret Thomas, of Sydney, Australia, and Hanora Bygrave, of Cork City, Ireland, took a Thanksgiving trip to see some native Americana in the hills of western North Carolina at the Cherokee Indian Reservation. Much to the girls surprise, the first Indian they met had just returned from a trip to Melbourne, Australia! Beth Holmes, secretary to Mr. Jon Jaeger, recently accompanied her husband Bill, a third-year Duke law student, to the Moot Court Regional Competition at the University of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia. (Bill was one of three students selected to participate on the Duke Law School Moot Court Team. They won!) From Richmond the two traveled to Indiana, Michigan and Illinois, where Bill had interviews with law firms.
